Grand Knight's Report

Brothers all:

As the Easter Bunny has hopped away and Christ has risen; we welcome the arrival of April. Before reviewing our April calendar, let's take a look back at our March activity.

But first let's first take a moment to say one final goodbye to Father Joseph M. Peek. Our hearts are heavy as he was beloved by all. This could not have been more evident than by the overflowing attendance at his wake, funeral, and burial.

His family and friends from multiple parishes provided all of the love and support one could ever hope for. God bless all who participated and attended in these phenomenal ceremonies.

The Annual State Free Throw Championship was held at Georgia Tech in March. All Saints was honored to have 11 representatives in the State competition. More details will follow.

The St. Patrick's Day Bingo evening went off flawlessly, after being moved to the gymnasium. The bingo crew created a fun and entertaining atmosphere for all ages. Winners are still earning record breaking cash prizes every month.

Dom Palermo and his many volunteers continue to conduct huge raffles for valuable prizes between games. Don't forget to stop in and have some of the freshly prepared cuisine.

Congratulations to all who participated in the fine Membership Recruiting Weekend held on March 12-13. We witnessed the growth of our Knight Council by 7 strong new members with more to join in April.

These gentlemen have realized the vast opportunities to aid their fellow man through charity and service. Please make a point to welcome them all.

The "Record Breaking" 2016 Fish Fry Season has finally concluded. From our "practice run" through 7 consecutive Fridays we amassed 8,779 meals served and crushed all previous annual totals.

Through the extremely efficient processes, detailed preparation, and expedited delivery system we averaged 7.24 meals served per minute. These kinds of numbers are only attainable through the collaborated efforts of our Brother Knights / Volunteers to achieve our common goal of charity. Congratulations to all, and I look forward to seeing you at the Volunteer Dinner.

Hopefully you were able to read the book Rediscovering Jesus, as well as participate in one of the many Bible Study groups that were made available. If you did, I am certain that you had as rewarding a Lenten Season, as I.

April's calendar is as follows:

On March 29th, we held a large 1st degree exemplification in McGivney Hall. There were several councils represented and the number of observers was unusually high.

All Saints received the above six new brothers out of the 13 candidates that were exemplified. Represented were also candidates from Mary Our Queen, Georgia Tech, The Cathedral of Christ the King, Immaculate Heart of Mary, Our Lady of the Assumption, and Atlanta 660. It was quite an evening.

We are proud to support the Order by helping those councils without a first degree team or those candidates who were unable to attend their own council's event.

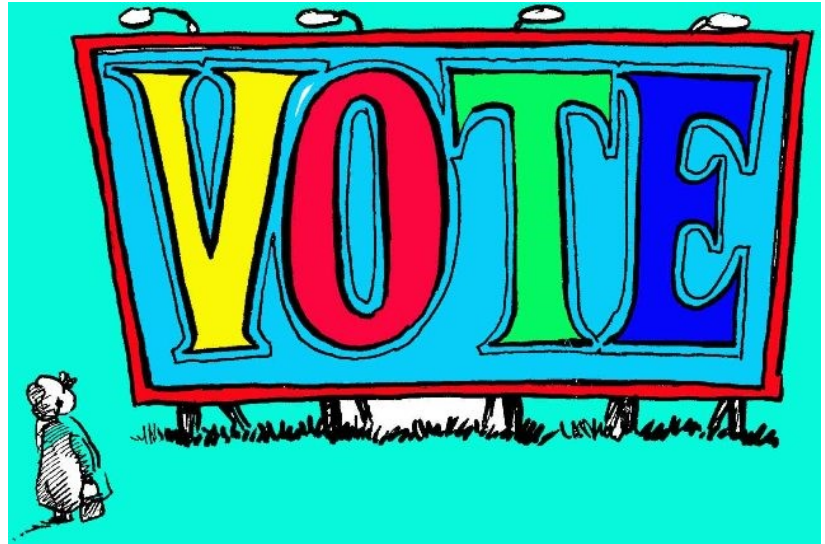

We also added a new 4th degree brother, Stephen Berrigan, who transferred from Blessed Sacrament Council 9488 in Harrison, VA. No picture is available. He will also join our Fr. Charles Watters Assembly. Welcome.

Fraternal Year Elections Looming

As we approach the June council meeting wherein we vote new officers for the 2016-2017 fraternal year, we ask all our members who have achieved the 3rd degree to consider running for office. Offices are open to such members. These offices and current officers are detailed on the second-last page of this newsletter. Anyone interested should contact the three officers listed as trustees on the second last page.

A proposed slate of those expressing interest will be posted in the May newsletter with the actual election taking place at the June council meeting. Last minute additions may be included right until the actual election.

Offices appointed by the grand knight are Chaplain, Lecturer, and Financial Secretary. All others will be elected by the members in June. Please consider becoming an officer in the council or perhaps a committee chairman on one of our six committees.

New 2nd Degree Brothers

On March 16th, three of our brothers traveled to St. Benedict Parish to take their 2nd degree exemplification. They are (L-R) Jim Tiffany, Andrew Oliviero, and Dan McDonough. Chancellor Dick Marklein did the necessary groundwork.

Cub Scout/KofC Spagetti Dinner April 17

Please make it a point to support your Cub Scout Pack and attend this event with your family.

Vidalia Onion Time Again

It's that time of the year again to plan for the ANNUAL sale of our Vidalia Onions. On the current schedule, the Onions Sale will be held on the week-end of April 30-May 1.

Last year YOU helped All Saints Parish alone sell 520 ten- pound bags of these Onions, and we will order that many again this year.

If you have a Business and would like to use Georgia Vidalia Onions as a Client Gift, please let us know and we can work out a deal with you.

We need EVERYONE'S participation to assist in the sale. Remember, spouses and teenagers can help as well and are most WELCOME.

A sign-up sheet will be available at our April 5 Council meeting as well as through a "Sign Up Genius" email that will follow the meeting.

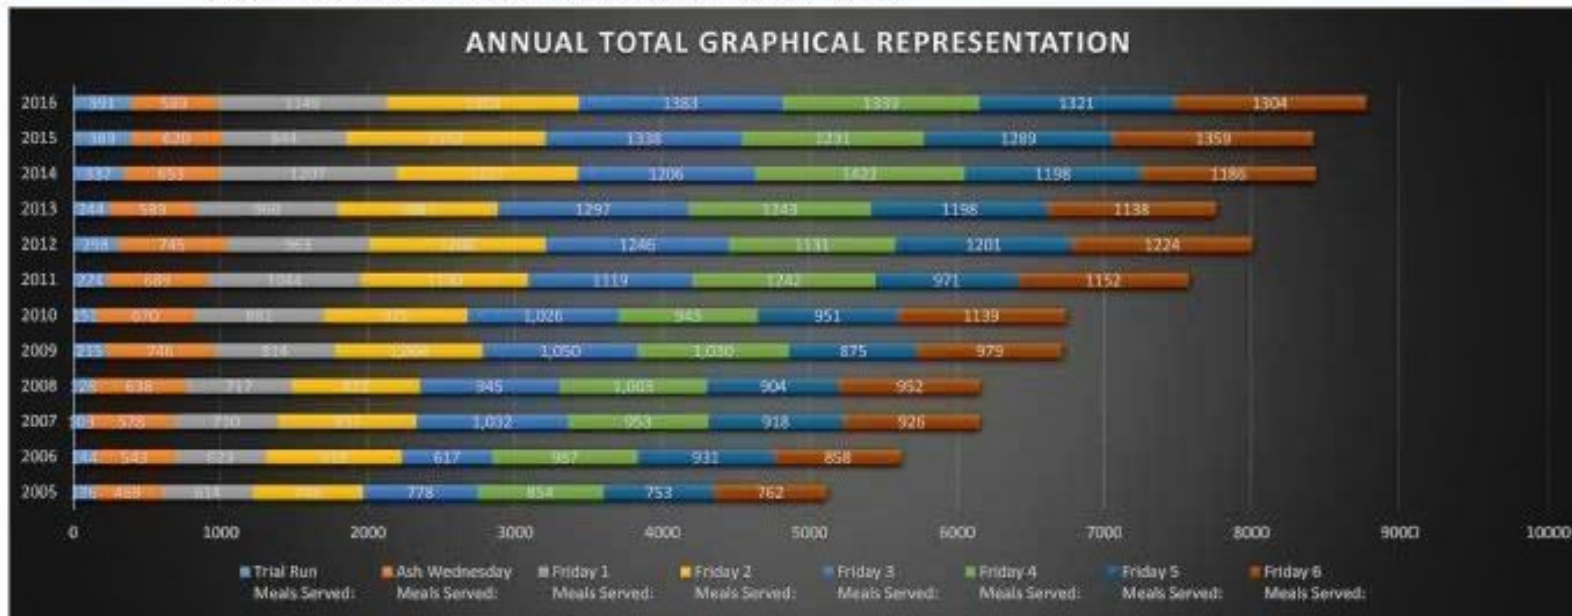

19th Annual Lenten Fish Fry Sets New Record!

We finished this year's Fish Fry season with 357 more meals than last year, beating our record, set in 2014, of 8,436 for Lent by serving 8,779 total meals this year! Now 9,000 is just around the corner!

While we never broke our single night record of 1,422, we gave it a scare with 1,300 plus on five nights. Thanks to all our volunteers for another record series of events. This constant increase in volume helps us keep our prices constant every year.

Color Explanation: Annual Data intensity of color between RED and GREEN indicates lower numbers as red and higher numbers as green with the average number served falling in the YELLOW range.
2016 vs 2015 comparison uses green for positive change and red for negative.

The bottom graph shows the obvious annual growth trend in our yearly totals. The only negative factor controlling any individual fish fry date has been the weather which is beyond our control. We had excellent weather this year ensuring a record for all eight events.

Join Our Unique Council Acolyte Ministry

Parish Religious Support Acolytes

For twenty years, our All Saints Council has been providing altar servers for every parish funeral and some special Mass events. Instituted by former pastor Monsignor Kiernan in the late 1990's, he asked the Knights if they could serve funeral Masses in lieu of youngsters who were hard to schedule on school days, weekends, and on short notice for funerals. Our acolyte program with up to seventy participants was the eager response. We haven't missed a funeral since. There are about 50 deaths per year at All Saints. We know of no other council in the world with such a ministry.

Organized into five acolyte teams under five team leaders, we rotate funerals as they occur among the five teams under Acolyte Director, Brother Norb Braza. Each member provides a navy blue blazer, medium grey slacks, white shirt, and black shoes. The council provides a KofC tie to finish the attractive "uniform".

Because some of our acolyte team members have passed or moved away, we would like to add about a dozen new members across the five teams. Training is provided and you should only have to serve about one funeral per month. Being on God's altar is a privilege rather than an obligation. If you were once a young altar server you can appreciate this. If you were never an altar server, you can begin to appreciate the pride of ceremonial participation. Burying the dead is a work of mercy.

A full funeral acolyte team can consist of a cross bearer, two candle bearers, a water and a wine bearer, and an incense bearer. When six knights are not available, a team of four knights is sufficient. People who attend funerals at All Saints are always impressed by the mature solemnity of the men on the altar. Our brother, Bernie Sotola, provides the vocals at these funerals and is yet another participant in a matching uniform.

Please consider joining this unique ministry by contacting director Norb Braza at 770-393-8645 or nlbraza@aol.com. This is an excellent way to serve your council, your parish, and the community.

Jim Gonzales—Our Favorite Irishman

We're not certain why someone with a surname of Gonzales can claim to be Irish, but we suspect it's on his mother's side.

Our council warden loves to dress up in outrageous garb, and we don't mind as long as he keeps making those wonderful meals at our events.

Fish Fry Volunteer Appreciation Party

As we do every year, the council will hold an appreciation Party for everyone who worked at any of our fish fry events openly or in support of same.

The tentative date has been set as Sunday May 15th from 12 noon until 3 PM in the gym.

We expect our co-big-fish, Dennis Caniglia, and his friends will again prepare the whiskey steaks for which he is now revered.

There will be no cost for the dinner. Please keep the date open.

Brother John Klein Sends Greetings from Rome

Our council brother, Brother John Klein of the Legionaires of Christ, sends Easter greeting from Rome. He is one of our four seminarians that we sponsor. He follows our council events closely and keeps in touch. Here is his Easter letter to us. He is the tall one.

Council brothers,

I just wanted to write you and wish you the very best of Easters! Christ is Risen and God is close to us! Let yourselves be overcome by the joy and hope that the Resurrection brings. As Pope Francis continually tells us here in Rome... "Do not let anyone or anything rob you of your JOY!" Be happy always for God's love for all of us is more powerful than death. Be assured of my prayers from Rome! I had the very special grace to hand out Communion in St. Peter's Square at the Easter Mass with the Pope this morning. It was such a neat experience to bring all the pilgrims Christ himself in the Eucharist. May all of you come to realize more the joy of the love of God in your lives this year!

I wish you all my best from Rome!

*Yours in Christ,
Br. John Klein, LC*

Attached is a picture of me and Br. Diego, a seminarian studying with me from Colombia, today after handing out communion at the Pope's Mass! Happy Easter!

April Tip — We Stand Strong on Ethical Ground

Some people believe that ethics in business is a contradiction in terms. They think that in order to be profitable, a company and its leaders must abandon morality and embrace the dark, greedy side that they see so often in the news and in movies.. At the Knights of Columbus, we know this isn't true. A business can be both ethical and successful. We are.

As a Catholic organization, we understand the value and importance of our core beliefs and the original mission of Venerable Father Michael J. McGivney. In fact, much of the strength and financial security we provide to members and their families can be attributed to our ethical, moral standards.

More than 96 percent of Knights who buy our life insurance keep it, year in and year out. The Order takes this commitment to our members very seriously. This means carefully planning when it comes time to invest. Our professional staff researches all transactions to insure that they fall in line with Catholic values. If a transaction makes them uncomfortable, they don't make it.

“We exclude any company engaged in activity that conflicts with Catholic moral teaching: companies directly involved in abortion, contraception, human cloning, embryonic stem cell research, for-profit health care that pays for any of these, or pornography,” said Supreme Knight Carl Anderson. “There are many companies in the pharmaceutical and communications industries that would undoubtedly provide excellent returns for us, but which are not in our portfolio because they engage in research and development or programming in ways that violate the sanctity or dignity of human life.”

In the end, the Knights of Columbus investment strategy is motivated by morality, not money. Yet, each year we remain profitable, increase our assets and stay dedicated to this vision that will keep the Order financially sound for generations to come.

But don't just take our word for it. In 2015, the Knights of Columbus was named a “World's Most Ethical Company” by the Ethisphere Institute. We were one of only two life insurance companies to earn the honor.

“Faithful Catholics have choices when buying life insurance,” said the Supreme Knight. “But they know that at the Knights of Columbus their policy is supplied by an insurer that shares their moral and ethical values and is guided in all of its investment and sales practices by those values.”

I'll help with the future.”

Sad Farewell to Fr. Joseph Peek

Father Joseph Michael Peek ("Father Joe") was born on 9 August 1965, in Corpus Christi, Texas.

He survived a miraculous birth in dire condition; he was seven weeks early, black from lack of oxygen, and baptized by the doctor because of danger of death.

After a brief stop in Amityville, NY, he and his soon-to-be ten siblings grew up in a bustling Irish Catholic family in the Northlake area of Atlanta. At home, daily reminders of his family's Catholic faith surrounded Father Joe. A five-foot tall crucifix hung in the family's living room behind a statue of Our Lady of Fatima, before which the family would pray the rosary nightly. His parents, Mary and Joseph Peek, emphasized the importance of serving others, and encouraged each of their children to serve their parish and to live their faith on a daily basis.

As a child, Father Joe began his service to his church as an altar server at Immaculate Heart of Mary Church. Even at a young age, Father Joe developed a reputation for looking out for outcasts, long before bullying became such a widespread topic of concern. He was the one who noticed the kid sitting alone at the cafeteria table or soccer field and befriended them. As a soccer referee, he had the reputation for throwing a disruptive player out of a game for misconduct; however, once the game was over, he sought out the player he had removed from the game and scrimmaged with him. He taught himself magic tricks to allow him to entertain, mesmerize, and teach both young and old alike.

Father Joe's journey to priesthood was not a direct one. After graduating from Lakeside High School in DeKalb County (class of 1983), he attended the Georgia Institute of Technology on a Naval ROTC scholarship.

He entered the Navy in the late 1980s and served three years as a Search & Rescue swimmer, and anti-submarine air crewman, dipping sonar on board an SH-63 helicopter. He also worked as a substitute teacher and a waiter at Outback Steakhouse.

But he kept feeling a pull toward the priesthood and decided to go to seminary with the hopes of becoming a Navy chaplain. He then spent three years with the Oblates of the Blessed Virgin Mary in Boston, attending St. John's Seminary. Coming back to diocesan life, he spent two years at St. Charles Borromeo Seminary in Pennsylvania, and finished up his last two years at Mount Saint Mary's Seminary in Maryland.

And then, one day in 2002, Father Joe, who as a Navy rescue swimmer was known for his physical endurance and strength, couldn't reach the top of a hill during his daily run at seminary, where he regularly "tagged" Jesus on the cross.

In February 2002, just months shy of his ordination, Father Joe was diagnosed with chronic myelogenous leukemia. This was the beginning of years and years of severe pain, and ever-so-slow improvements, mixed with setbacks. Despite his diagnosis, he completed his studies and was ordained to the priesthood on June 22, 2002, by Archbishop John F. Donoghue. In October 2003, Father Joe received a bone marrow transplant from his sister Kathleen, and while doctors believed the transplant effectively cured Father Joe of the cancer, the procedure created a new series of life-threatening health concerns.

Suffering from what is known as "graft-versus-host disease," the new immune system attacked Father Joe's body. The illness ravaged his organs one-by-one, ultimately affecting his flesh-beginning with his back, always invisible to the public, but massive and raw, and often irritated by hugs he never mentioned were an affliction.

Over time, the wounds extended from his face and neck to his feet, challenging his life-long ambition of serving as a priest. Open wounds scarred more than 70% of his body, including the soles of his feet. The sores on his body made a good night's sleep elusive as lying in one spot for a couple of hours resulted in excruciating pain for Father Joe. His bandages on his wounds had to be changed three times a week, and even then several times he contracted MRSA. In 2008, he became septic and almost died. Despite his life threatening illness, Father Joe asked for and received parish assignments at St. Catherine of Siena, Kennesaw; Sts. Peter & Paul Parish, Decatur; Mary Our Queen, Norcross; and All Saints Church, Dunwoody.

However, his parish assignments, while important to Father Joe, became a small part of his ministry as a priest. Father Joe believed that as a priest he needed to be a visible presence of Christ to others. More importantly, Father Joe believed his experience as a patient put him in a special category of priests, and he felt a need to minister to fellow patients at Emory University's Winship Cancer Institute and others within Atlanta's Catholic community.

Father Joe became the spiritual advisor to the sickest of the sick. He would regularly visit with patients in the hospital--even though such visits threatened his own health, since his body was covered with open wounds that left him susceptible to infections. He also developed a large on-line ministry, which he would attend to as much as his strength and health would allow. In 2012, he developed squamous cell carcinoma, which turned several of his wounds into growing lesions.

Father Joe had a few procedures to remove these lesions, but eventually, they spread to his lymph nodes. He was told by his doctors in December 2014 that there was nothing more they could do. On March 14, 2016, Father Joe, surrounded by the songs and prayers his parents and siblings, drew his last breath, completed his life on earth, and began his eternal life with Christ. Father Joseph Peek is survived by his parents, Mary and Joseph of Atlanta, his ten siblings, and his thirty-nine nieces and nephews.

The Wake and Viewing was held all night on Thursday, March 17, starting at 7pm at All Saints Catholic Church, where Father Joe was in residence: 2443 Mount Vernon Road, Atlanta, GA 30338.

The Funeral Mass was celebrated by Archbishop Wilton D. Gregory at All Saints Catholic Church on Friday, March 18, at 11am. Fr. Kevin Peek, the brother of Fr. Joe, was the homilist. A reception followed in the parish social hall.

Father Joe's burial was at Georgia National Cemetery, 1080 Veterans Cemetery Road, Canton, GA 30114 on Monday, March 21, at 11:30 am.

HANCEVILLE, Alabama — Mother Mary Angelica, a folksy Roman Catholic nun who used a monastery garage to begin a television ministry that grew into a global religious media empire, has died. She was 92.

Known to millions of viewers simply as "Mother Angelica," the founder of the Eternal Word Television Network died Easter Sunday at the rural monastery where she lived about 45 miles north of Birmingham, according to EWTN Chairman and Chief Executive Officer Michael P. Warsaw.

"Mother has always, and will always, personify EWTN, the Network which she founded. In the face of sickness and long-suffering trials, Mother's example of joy and prayerful perseverance exemplified the Franciscan spirit she held so dear. We thank God for Mother Angelica and for the gift of her extraordinary life," Warsaw said in a news release late Sunday.

Mother Angelica had been in declining health since suffering a severe cerebral hemorrhage on Christmas Eve 2001. She never regained her full speaking ability and had other, less-severe strokes through the years.

Bedridden for months, Mother Angelica was placed on a feeding tube this fall as her health slowly declined, fellow nuns at Our Lady of the Angels Monastery said in an announcement released in November.

Alabama Gov. Robert Bentley said in a statement Sunday that Mother Angelica will live on forever in the hearts of those touched by her sermons.

Memento Mori

Our Council and Watters Assembly Brother, Sir Knight Fr. Joseph Michael Peek (1965 - 2016), succumbed on March 14th to his auto-immune diseases. See the entire article in this newsletter.

His brothers and those of many other councils participated as acolytes and honor guards at his wake, his funeral, and his burial as a Navy veteran in the Canton Military Cemetery.

Please take a moment to remember all the current prayer requests on the previous page. If any requests need to be added or removed, please alert Lou Hlad at louhlad@comcast.net.
