Grand Knight's Report

Brothers,

Coming Up...

This weekend is our annual Vidalia Onion Sale, Saturday-Sunday, 29-30 April at all Masses. We need your help before and after the Mass you will attend.

This Sunday, 30 April, is our second, 5th Sunday Rosary. The Rosary will take place right after the 10:30 Mass. Doughnuts/coffee are "gratis" in McGivney after the rosary.

If you volunteered at one of our Fish Fry dinners and haven't received an eVite for the Fish Fry Appreciation Luncheon, please contact Brother Tom Simon, tgsimon@comcast.net. Attendance is limited to only those Brothers (and spouse), family members, and parishioners who helped during the Fish Fry dinners.

Brother John Gannon and the parish Respect for Life Ministry asks for our help to distribute Pro-Life Pamphlets after Masses on Sunday, 14 May- Mother's Day.

April in Review

Fish Fry Dinner series a rousing success! Can you think of an event that brings all of Dunwoody together for seven nights of friendship and great food? This year, we served 8,572 meals and celebrated a one-night record of 1,462 served meals! Our Co-Fishes, Brothers Tom Simon and Dennis Caniglia, and over 200 Knights and parishioners, once again showed that our council, and parish, are the Lenten Hospitality Kings of Dunwoody!

Recruiting Goal exceeded in April. Our council welcomed 37 fellow parishioners into our council this Fraternal Year. Our Chancellor, Dick Marklein, oversaw this multi-faceted project and continues to personally guide each new brother through his advancement to the third degree.

Notes and Thoughts

Brother John Shaffer is heading up a pilot program, Knights Helping Widows. The team consists of a small staff of brothers to help our widows with small projects. Interested to help? Please contact John Shaffer @ k9shaffer@aol.com.

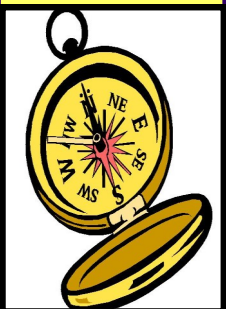

It's hard to express the great pride I felt for all my brothers and fellow parishioners who volunteered to help make our 2017 Fish Fry a rousing success. The compliments flowed freely from our guests who expressed wonder at our operational efficiency and thanks for great food!

Yes, there are still some brothers who... Dues not paid and have questions? Contact our Financial Secretary, Brother Ralph O'Connor, at (404) 242-1234 or ralph390@comcast.net.

Vivat Jesus, Brother Pat

New 1st Degree Brother in April

Patrick Ettempola

Our newest brother comes from the country of Sri Lanka, an island nation on the southern tip of India. He is a three year member of All Saints along with his wife Sudanthi Pelmada.

He works with the Habitat for Humanity organization and was recruited by Dick Marklein. He is 52 years old and has been married for nearly 14 years.

We welcome him and his wife to the council.

Our April 25th ceremony also added a new Georgia Tech brother.

Fish Fry Split-the-Pot Pick Moment

If you ever wondered who wins the split-the-pot raffles at our fish fries, here is a defining moment.

Bill Driscoll asked Sir Knight David Emery's grandkids to pick the winning entry. As luck would have it, our past Grand Knight Lou Hlad's ticket was drawn.

Bill called the Hlad household with the news, wife Marty answered the phone, and Lou never saw the $234 prize.

The Ed Trainor family was also a winner this year as well.

Vidalia Onions -- The Sweet Smell Of Succe$$

At the time of this writing, the council was busy holding its ANNUAL sale of our Vidalia Onions on the weekend of April 29-30.

Last year our council alone sold 520 ten-pound bags of Onions, and we ordered that many again this year. We ordered an entire 18-wheeler full of 3,000 bags to be split up between 14 councils.

Even the new Holy Name of Jesus Chinese Mission started with 20 bags this year.

Results of the effort will be detailed at the Tuesday April 4th Council meeting.

If you missed out on getting your bag this year, contact Co-Onion King, Dean Trantow, at 678-296-6326 or TRANTOWD@AOL.COM to see if there are a few bags left over. Thanks to all who sold onions this year. This is always a very successful venture us.

Wiley Maloof Ceremony Honors

We finally caught up to our Sir Knight Wiley Maloof, 85, at one of our fish fries to give him a special honor. He doesn't get out much these days.

Dick Marklein (left) finally presented Wiley with the certificate showing that Wiley had been named the honoree at a first degree ceremony held at St. Jude Council.

It was signed by every new member who became a knight that day. Wiley is always one of our very favorite brothers. God bless this special man.

A large group of people, mostly seniors, are seated at round tables in a large hall, eating and socializing. A woman in a purple shirt stands in the foreground, looking towards the camera. The room has a red curtain in the background.

Volunteer Appreciation Party

If you volunteered this year,
watch for your invitation.

A large, yellow, egg-shaped M&M's character with a sad expression, holding a card that says "Thanks For Being So Sweet!" and showing a drawing of two M&M's characters. The character has a single tear on its cheek and is wearing white gloves. The card is white with a pointed top and features a colorful illustration of two M&M's characters, one red and one yellow, surrounded by flowers. The background is a soft, out-of-focus indoor setting. In the bottom right corner, the word "SWEET" is written in a stylized font.

This certificate is awarded to

TROOP 434

All Saints Council 11402 is proud to award our parish Boy Scout Troop 434 this award naming them our Honorary Brother Knights for their exemplary support of our 2017 Lenten Fish Fry. Their many hours of service and their infectious enthusiasm have helped make our community event a record success this year. We applaud their fine organization.

Grand Knight - Pat Fahey

Deputy Grand Knight - Jim Gonzales

Joe Kane - Family Life

All Saints Scout Troop was so helpful at our recent Fish Fry events, that our leadership voted to award our Troop 434 the Knight-of-the-Month certificate.

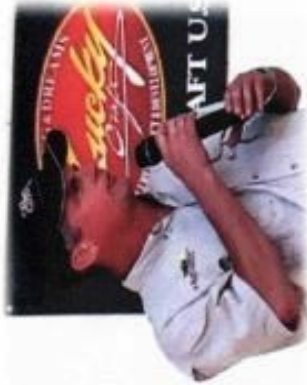

We have from time to time felt strongly about making this award available to individuals and groups outside of the brotherhood where appropriate.

We really appreciate our All Saints scout Troop.

Watters Assembly Dinner at Altobeli Restuarant

Battlecross Dedication May 13th

Our Fr. Charles J. Watters 4th Degree Assembly 2688 has now erected a “Battlecross” Monument in the Johns Creek Newtown Park to commemorate our fallen warriors. The base of the battlecross monument has a plaque previously prepared by the Assembly.

Our cross is placed at the entrance of the park at 3150 Old Alabama Road, Johns Creek, GA 30022. The official dedication is May 13th at 3 PM. Many local dignitaries, newspeople, and KofC state officers will attend. A Watters Assembly honor guard will be provided as well.

This military park is the fourth largest in the country and is well worth a visit. The Assembly had already installed a bench in honor of Fr. Charles J. Watters who is a fallen Congressional Medal of Honor Winner from the Vietnam War. Our council has an amazing 157 Sir Knights.

Our Sir Knight Bill Camden is the Faithful Navigator of the Assembly and coordinated the installation of the battlecross monument. The Assembly raised the funds.

Second degree Brother George joined the All Saints Council originally and later he and his wife Joanne relocated to Mary Our Queen Parish.
