Grand Knight's Report

Brothers all:

July was a very busy month and August promises to be the same. Let me review with you many of our accomplishments.

Before doing so, let us offer our most sincere condolences to the families and friends of recently deceased Brother Donald del Guercio and Sir Knight Jean-Paul Roy. The Honor Guard requested for Sir Knight Roy did an outstanding job at the visitation and funeral once again.

On the 4th of July we launched our Knights of Columbus float, where we commemorated our 20 years as a council. What better event than the Dunwoody parade, which is the largest parade in the State of Georgia. We honored our past and present Grand Knights. The float featured General George Patton himself waiving to all who attended, just ask E. J. Couvillion about the experience.

A great deal of fun was had by all who participated, and I would like to give special thanks to all the Knights, wives, and all others who helped make this possible. I hope to see you all again next year.

Bingo continues to be a growing success. If you are looking for a service project in which to get involved, Bingo is the program for you. It is on the ground floor but the elevator is rising rapidly. This month we experienced our biggest night to date. We had 149 players, awarded over $1,000 in prizes, and netted over $1,400. Congratulations to Dominic Palermo and his Bingo team.

During the month, Bill Camden, Stan Wasowski and I traveled to St. Catherine of Sienna Parish for the semi-annual Grand Knights meeting. It was a great experience for us all. We will be implementing many of the new ideas over this fraternal year.

Last month also included budget meetings, which we have concluded, and preparations for our upcoming audit are underway. The audit is due on August 15th.

I am proud to report that 2 of our seminarians have been ordained as priests in our diocese. Congratulations to Father Matt Dalrymple and Father Brian Baker. We have acquired 2 new seminarians as well; both will be matriculating at Notre Dame Seminary. They are Jorge Carranza and Paul Nacey. We wish them God speed on their respective journeys.

Upcoming in August we have many activities ahead of us. The Council Challenge which is administrated by Supreme will run in tandem with our fall membership drive. I am certain that we can achieve Star Council as we did again this year and possibly attain Double Star status.

When you check-in the meeting this Tuesday evening, you will notice a blue bucket on the desk. This bucket represents the Pennies for Heaven campaign. This is a simple way for all members to help the Monastery of the Holy Spirit. Please reach into your pockets for any spare change, it all goes to a great cause. After the meeting, the first ten people who can tell me the color of the bucket, will enjoy a beer on me.

The Butterfly Festival at the Dunwoody Nature Center is scheduled to take place on August 16th. Last year, everyone who took part, had a wonderful time. During the next meeting, Bob Fiscella will discuss the coordination of volunteers for the Butterfly Festival.

The Parish Fall Festival will be held in October. There will be more information forthcoming as we receive it.

I look forward to seeing you at our upcoming events.

Vivat Jesus,

Dean Trantow

Council Prepares Another Great July 4th Float

Another great patriotic float was assembled by the folks in the top photo. Past grand knights rode in honor on it, while E.J. Couvillion played the part of commander in George Patton fashion.

Our brother, Dunwoody Mayor Mike Davis, rode in the convertible and Sir Knight Wiley Maloof drove one of our decorated golf carts.

There was no shortage of red, white, and blue balloons this year and the weather was perfect.

Thanks to all who made this another memorable parade event for the council.

Council-Sponsored Seminarian Becomes Priest

Father Brian Baker

Age: 35

Birthdate: Feb. 1, 1979

Birthplace: Newport News, Virginia

Parents: Nicholas Baker Jr. and Claire Baker.

Family: Father Baker has an older half-sister, Laura, older brother, Nicholas, and younger twin siblings, Thomas and Jennifer.

Education: Attended Old Dominion University, Norfolk, Virginia, and studied biology, biochemistry and psychology.

Music: Before he was a seminarian, his singing talents won him an audition before the celebrity judges on “American Idol” that aired in 2003. He also won a VIP spot for “American Idol” auditions by participating in a radio contest in 2005. That time he was cut from the first rounds of auditions, a “great moment of humility.” This past Easter, while a seminarian in Rome, he was selected to chant the “Exultet” at the Easter Vigil celebrated by Pope Francis at St. Peter’s Basilica.

Seminary: Mount St. Mary’s Seminary, Emmitsburg, Maryland, and Pontifical North American College, Rome, Italy.

How have you changed since entering seminary? “Through seminary, I’ve grown closer to the Lord and have learned to rely on him more completely, especially in prayer and the sacraments. But through that closer relationship with him, and with the people he has called me to serve for love of him, I’ve grown in a deeper understanding of who I am. My truest identity has been revealed to me by preparing for and receiving the vocation to which he has called me.”

What ministries interest you most? “I look forward to celebrating the Holy Eucharist and ministering the sacrament of reconciliation.”

First assignment: Parochial vicar at St. Brigid Church, Johns Creek, in July and August. He will return to the Pontifical North American College in Rome this fall to study for a licentiate in sacred theology.

Seminarian and later Deacon Brian Baker has been a member of the All Saints Council’s Refund Support Vocations Program (RSVP) for a number of years. We have contributed cash to help fund his journey to the priesthood. Happily, this has finally occurred as featured in the July 10th Georgia Bulletin Magazine. He is one of two new diocesan priests we supported. See next page for our second success story. Be very proud of our council achievements.

Council-Sponsored Seminarian Becomes Priest

Father Matthew Dalrymple

Age: 34

Birthdate: Aug. 16, 1979

Birthplace: St. Louis, Missouri

Parents: Jack and Sally Dalrymple, of Roswell.

Family: Father Dalrymple's brother, Andy, and sister-in-law, Caroline, live in South Carolina.

Education: Southern Methodist University in Dallas, Texas, and Dedman Law School at Southern Methodist, where he received a law degree in 2005. He practiced law with private firms and then was an assistant district attorney for Dawson County, Georgia.

Seminary: Mundelein Seminary, Mundelein, Illinois, and the Pontifical North American College, Rome, Italy.

Hobbies: Fishing

Languages spoken: English and Italian

Call to priesthood: "While in graduate school, I was expecting to one day have a natural family, and I was working on a law degree, but in prayer, I sensed the Lord was asking for something. A friend and classmate at the time was a consecrated man living celibately for the kingdom of God, and this disarmed me to what celibacy was about. He was a normal guy, just completely dedicated to God. In prayer, I asked the Lord what he wanted with my life, and I got the sense in prayer that the Lord was inviting me to live completely dedicated as his Son did."

How have you changed since entering seminary? "Since I entered seminary, the Lord has built up in me greater faith, hope and love."

What was the year as a transitional deacon like? "In preparing to be a priest, the ministry of deacon prepared me well since it is a training in service. As a deacon, I have been serving those around me and assisting priests in sanctifying, teaching and governing the flock entrusted to their care."

First assignment: Parochial vicar at Prince of Peace Church, Flowery Branch, in July and August. He will return to the Pontifical North American College in Rome in the fall to complete a licentiate in sacramental theology.

Seminarian and later Deacon Matt Dalrymple has been a member of the All Saints Council's Refund Support Vocations Program (RSVP) for a number of years. We have contributed cash to help fund his journey to the priesthood. Happily, this has finally occurred as featured in the July 10th Georgia Bulletin Magazine. He is one of two new diocesan priests we supported. See previous page for our other success story. Be very proud of our council achievements.

All Saints KofC Dinner Featured in Georgia Bulletin

The July 10th issue of the Georgia Bulletin featured the Korean War Veterans Appreciation Dinner held in the All Saints gym on May 31st. Our Watters Assembly and the O'Callahan Assembly located at St. Brigid hosted the event. Eleven council members are Korean War Vets: Al Alberghini, Thomas Burleigh, George T. Doyle, Ray Gustin, John Hansberry, Wiley Maloof, Jim Masak, Guy Stryker, Richard Szyperski, George Tanguay, and Dave Webster. Several other non-KofC All Saints veterans attended. We salute them for their service to our country.

Members of the Knights of Columbus at All Saints Church, Dunwoody, saluted nearly 30 Korean War veterans in a celebration of their service to the country. It was organized by the Father Charles J. Watters Assembly 2688 and the Father Joseph T. O'Callahan Assembly 3441.

Korean War vets honored at dinner

Published July 10, 2014

Korean War veterans were honored guests at a dinner at All Saints Church, Dunwoody, hosted by the Knights of Columbus, including a representative from the government of South Korea.

On May 31, the Father Charles J. Watters Assembly 2688 and the Father Joseph T. O'Callahan Assembly 3441 together celebrated the living Korean War vets.

Some three dozen 36 veterans were identified, and 29 were able to attend a special appreciation dinner attended by 160 diners and the Korean Consul General He Becom Kim.

Honor guards escorted each veteran into the dinner, which featured a multi-media slideshow and several guest speakers. Gifts for veterans included a three-disk DVD set of a Korean War documentary film.

Volunteer at St. Joseph's creates honor for nurses

Norbert and Barbara Braza make news as Emory Saint Joseph Hospital volunteers

Dunwoody resident Norbert Braza, a 14-year volunteer at Emory Saint Josephs Hospital, used his hobby skills to design and create a stained glass window at the hospital as a tribute to the nurses for receiving the monthly DAISY Award.

The window that features a daisy, the emblem for an international foundation that honors nurses, now occupies a permanent spot on the Daisy wall located on the fifth floor in the hospital, which also includes the names and portraits of the award winners.

For the past 14 years, the 83-year-old has been a valued and respected member of the volunteer team. His professional background includes positions from designing nuclear reactors for the U.S. Navy to encouraging companies to use a new technology at the time – computers. As a volunteer, Braza has used his computer skills and artistic talents to help others in many areas of the hospital.

Some of his work has consisted of developing spreadsheets and databases for various hospital departments that have maximized the efficiency of care for patients.

"I discovered that no matter how old you are, you keep on learning," Braza said. "I never fully understood all of the things a nurse does, until I started reading and working with them. Nurses put a lot of time into treating patients, and reviewing processes to make them more effective so they can provide better treatment and minimize costs."

For the past several years, Braza has also created stained glass windows for Habitat for Humanity houses that have been built by his congregation at All Saints Catholic Church.

"It made me extremely proud to be able to do this," said Braza. "We each have God-given talents and we have to use them to the best of our ability," he said modestly.

August Tip -- Our Guarantees Set Us Apart

Knights of Columbus life insurance offers something precious few other financial products can — guarantees. As long as you pay your premiums, the policy proceeds will be there for your beneficiaries should something happen to you. We call that peace of mind, and that's what we offer with our Shield for Life.

We guarantee the cash value in your whole life policies will be there.

We guarantee the rates on your term insurance.

We guarantee our retirement products will provide a stream of income when you need it.

On top of those product guarantees, I guarantee that I will offer professional, high-quality service that you would expect from our organization.

You don't have to take my word for it. The Order consistently earns the highest ratings for strength and security from AM Best. There is no more highly-rated life insurance provider in North America. When you couple this with all the charitable and volunteer work of the Order, it's hard to beat the value of Knights of Columbus Insurance.

I would suggest that a principal reason that we were able to achieve those accolades is because we remain steadfastly committed to the vision of Father Michael J. McGivney by providing life insurance by brother Knights for brother Knights.

That commitment is an essential core value of the Order, and our core values permeate all levels of our organization. These principles for marketing are summed up by our Golden Rule: "In all my professional relationships, I pledge myself to the following rule of conduct: I shall, in light of all conditions surrounding those I serve, render that service which, under the same circumstances, I would apply to myself."

Give me a call today to discuss how our products can bring that peace of mind to you and your family.

All Saints “Habitat for Humanity” House #21

In 1994 All Saints committed to support the construction of one Habitat for Humanity house. Now 20 years later we are preparing for the construction of our 21st house on August 23, 2014.

KofC 11402 has been an integral part of this project for many years, providing volunteer labor and lunch for one Saturday on each of the builds. Twenty families had the “unreachable” dream of owning a safe, warm, and sustainable home to raise their family and with your support the dream became reality.

Once again the parish will be required to raise $55,000 to seed the construction, working with the HFH affiliate. The financial and volunteer support from All Saints allows the selected homeowner to secure an affordable mortgage of approximately 90K at “0” interest secured by the HFH Atlanta affiliate. The Atlanta affiliate has recently celebrated their 30th anniversary and has now constructed over 1,200 homes. This effort has changed the lives of 5,000 family members for generations to come.

The support of Council 11402 is critical to the success of this project and we hope we will have a significant number of Knights participate in the project this fall. Remember, besides the “Knights” day (September 20th), you are encouraged to participate on any one of the seven Saturdays of the build. Day 1 of the project is August 23rd and will run for seven consecutive Saturdays, excluding 8/30 Labor Day weekend. Day 7 and dedication of the home will be on October 11th.

Signup Days for the Habitat House volunteers will be at all Masses on the weekend of August 2/3. Consider spending time with us one Saturday helping with the construction. Absolutely no skills are required. We guarantee a great time working alongside your fellow All Saints parishioners. Minimum age to work is 16 and this is a great opportunity for High Schoolers to earn service

Knights Holding Sept. Formal Membership Drive

The All Saints Knights Council will conduct a membership drive on September 13th and 14th before and after each Mass. Please consider volunteering to expand the membership in this elite organization to help others in need.

Our Chancellor, Bill Camden, will need volunteers of all ages to man the tables for recruiting and information dispersing. If you know a good candidate, please request a Form 100 and get him to sign it.

Prayer for Life

O God, our Creator, all life is in your hands from conception until death. Help us to cherish our children and to reverence the awesome privilege of our share in creation.

May all people live and die in dignity and love. Bless all those who defend the rights of the unborn, the handicapped and the aged. Enlighten and be merciful toward those who fail to love, and give them peace. Let freedom be tempered by responsibility, integrity and morality.
