Grand Knight's Report

Brothers,

Can you believe we are less than a month away from 2014! With that said, December is a busy month for our Council.

We get the ball rolling on Friday night (set-up) and Saturday morning with "Desserts with Santa." This is our most popular event with the parish after the fish fry and pumpkin patch, and is certainly the most popular with the kids. John Buchholz, Bruce Malinoff and Joe Cavallaro are already telling me this will be the biggest and best Desserts with Santa yet! If you have not yet signed-up to volunteer, please zip John an email at jbuch@aol.com. Greg Crnkovich tells me the role of Santa is already spoken for!

Saturday, December 14th is the Christmas Party at the Social Hall (following the 5PM Mass). We're still undecided on whether the event will be catered (with a small cost to attendees), or if we'll go back to a pot-luck dinner with the Council providing turkeys and hams. I am in need of volunteers for set-up; please zip me an email if you are available.

On Sunday, December 15th following the 5 PM Mass is the annual "Lighting of the Crèche." We will need a few hands for set-up on Saturday morning, as well as to serve hot apple cider as we join the All Saints' Choir in song. Again, zip me an email if you are available.

The weekend of December 14-15 also marks our Monastery Fudge Sale, as we help the Monks with their annual fundraiser. We'll be selling fudge following every Mass. Contact Gene Gannon at gene.gannon@prudential.com to volunteer.

I want to thank everyone who helped out this past Saturday with Monsignor Marren's Christmas Party. I especially want to thank Dominic Palermo, Adam Drost and Michael Palicia, who went above and beyond in helping with set-up. Anyone for a second cup of the Monsignor's Irish Coffee?

The following is a short excerpt from Father Robert Barron's website Word on Fire. I always find Fr. Barron's thoughts fascinating, and thought you would appreciate them.

"As by now everyone in the world knows, Pope Francis offered a lengthy and wide-ranging interview to the editor of Civiltà Cattolica, which was subsequently published in sixteen Jesuit-sponsored journals from a variety of countries.

As we've come to expect practically anytime that this Pope speaks, the interview has provoked a media frenzy. To judge by the headlines in The New York Times and on CNN, the Catholic Church is in the midst of a moral and doctrinal revolution, led by a maverick Pope bent on dragging the old institution into the modern world.

I might recommend that everyone take a deep breath and prayerfully (or at least thoughtfully) read what Pope Francis actually said. For what he actually said is beautiful, lyrical, spirit-filled, and in its own distinctive way, revolutionary.

The first question to which the Pope responded in this interview as simple: "Who is Jorge Mario Bergoglio (his given name)?" After a substantial pause, he said, "a sinner whom the Lord has looked upon." At the heart of the matter, at the core of the "Catholic thing," is this encounter between us sinners and the God of amazing grace. Long before we get to social teaching, to debates about birth control and abortion, to adjudicating questions about homosexual activity, to disputes about liturgy, etc., we have the graced moment when sinners are accepted, even though they are unacceptable.

Pope Francis aptly illustrated his observation by drawing attention to Caravaggio's masterpiece, "The Conversion of St. Matthew," which depicts the instant when Matthew, a thoroughly self-absorbed and materialistic man, found himself looked upon by Christ's merciful gaze. Because of that look, Matthew utterly changed, becoming first a disciple, then a missionary, and finally a martyr."

Newest Council Members and Progressions

Jeff Ducote

Dick Marklein

Ky Phanhsavath

John Priede

Ted Davis

Jim Masak

On November 20th, All Saints Council took advantage of the combined 1st/2nd degree exemptions offered every month by the Atlanta 660 council on Buford Highway on the third Wednesday of each month. Jeff Ducote, Dick Marklein, Ky Phanhsavath, and John Priede took advantage of the opportunity to join the Order and advance to 2nd degree that night. Several observers from All Saints were on hand to offer their encouragement to the four.

John Priede and Ky Phanhsavath had served as team members of the recent Christ Renews His Parish (CRHP) retreat held on Nov. 9/10 and decided to join the cadre of knights that formed the large majority of the attendees of that retreat.

Jeff Ducote is one of the Eagle Scout sons of our brother Richard Ducote. Dick Marklein is an independent professional recruited by Brother Len Dorrien.

Ted Davis and Jim Masak became 3rd degree members in past months and had not yet been so acknowledged in the newsletter. Congratulations to all !

“Desserts with Santa”- Sat. Dec. 7th

On Saturday, December 7, our Council will celebrate our 18th “Desserts With Santa” Party in the Activities Building (GYM) from 9:30 AM until Noon. Its open to all families of the parish, including friends and neighbors, so we should have a great crowd. This year we will have all the favorite activities such as: Balloon Man, Face Painting, Humongous Craft Area, Christmas Carols, lots of goodies to eat and drink, and of course a chance to get a picture with SANTA.

Again this year we will be helping the Dunwoody Police with their Christmas collection of unwrapped Toys/Games. Any child bringing in a new UNWRAPPED toy or game will receive their photo with Santa FREE.

We are proud to sponsor this event and enjoy seeing the happiness of the children AND adults that attend.

How can YOU help make this a success?

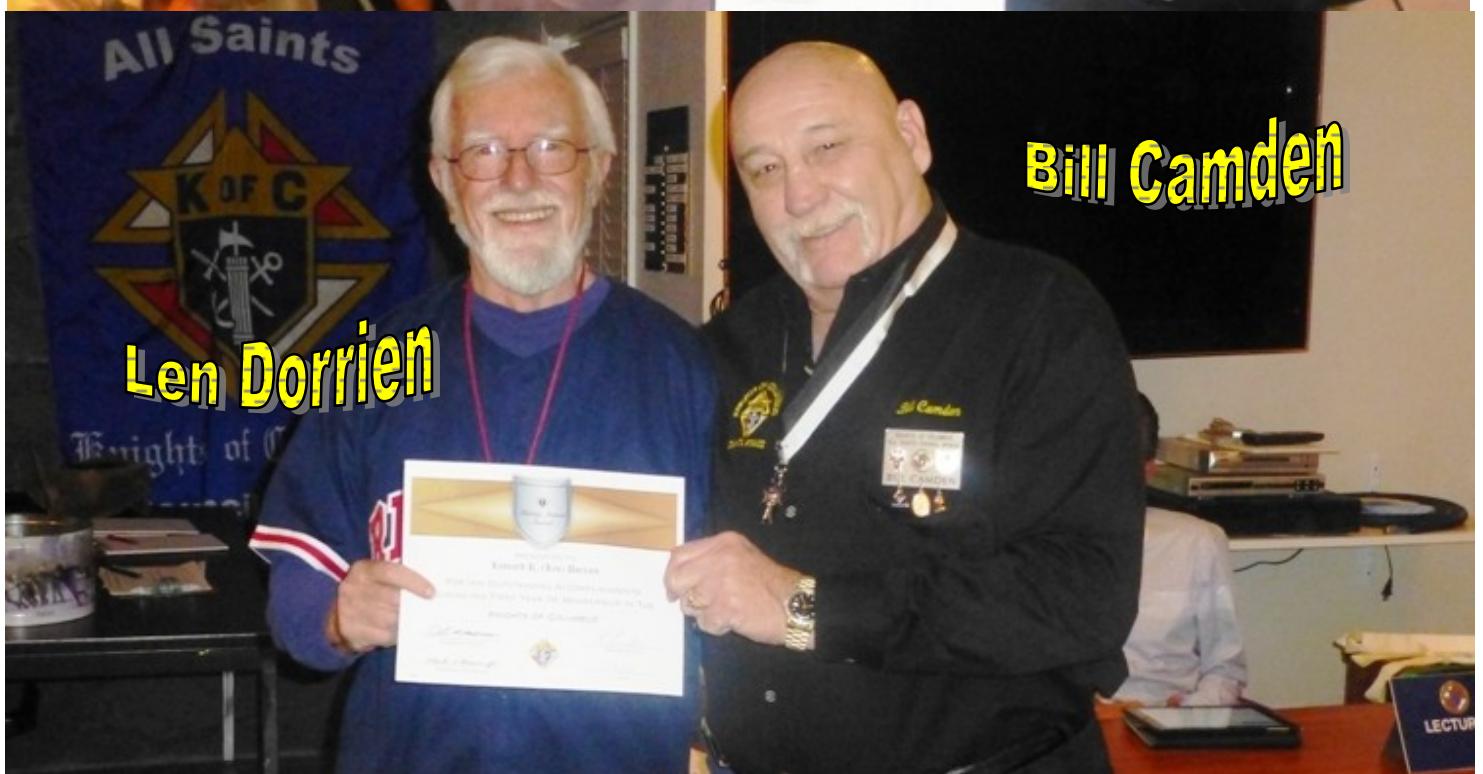

1. Remember those goodies I mentioned. Well, Santa can't bring them all, so we are asking YOU for donations of cookies or drinks (2-liter bottles) . We would like to have more “Home Made” goodies, if possible - but will appreciate “store-bought” as well . You can bring them to the Social Hall Friday night, December 6th (Set Up) or early Saturday Morning, December 7th.
2. Make plans to attend with your children and/or grandchildren. Only $6.00 per family plus another donation of $3.00 for a picture with Santa (FREE with a donated Toy/ Game).
3. We need YOU to help us staff the various activities during the party. If you can help on Friday Night (Set-Up) or Saturday, please contact John Buchholz at 770-458-5670 or jkbuch@aol.com . We'll have sign-up sheets at the November 5th council meeting.

Please find some way to help so we can ensure that the kids have a great start to the Christmas season - and hopefully you will be filled with the KofC Spirit of Christmas as well.

Shining Armor Awards All Around

Mark McMullen Awards Council a Star

Georgia State Council current State Secretary Mark McMullen attended the 10:30 Mass on Sunday November 10th and awarded the All Saints Council and Bob Fiscella the coveted Star Council Award for fraternal year 2012-2013. That Mass is the most heavily-attended and a great deal of our parishioners got to see the presentation.

The award plaque is the latest in a string of Star Awards granted to All Saints by the Georgia State Council for fulfilling the membership and insurance quotas established by the award criteria. It will proudly be mounted on the back wall of McGivney Hall along with all the many others.

Secretary McMullen is positioned next in line to become the new State Deputy when the current two-year terms of the officers are completed and upward rotation takes place. He is well known to our council via his connections as a John Carroll University alum who attends their local functions along with our four Carroll alums-- John Barranco, Dave Webster, Tim Lamb, and Lou Hlad. Deceased brother Jerry Cicero was also a Carroll Alumnus.

Brother Chris Carr Spurs Georgia Business

Our Brother Chris Carr continues garnering headlines as the new head of the Georgia Department of Economic Development. Georgia continues attracting major businesses to relocate in Georgia.

Public policies create top business climate

By Chris Carr

When Gov. Nathan Deal took office in January 2011, he made a promise that he wouldn't stop until Georgia was the No. 1 place in the country to do business.

He kept that promise.

Earlier this month, Gov. Deal announced that Georgia is the No. 1 place for business in the United States, according to Site Selection magazine's annual rankings of states based on their attractiveness to corporate facility investors.

Not only is this trade publication ranking a testament to the governor's dedication to improving our state's business climate, it also speaks to the commitment from our partners, communities and citizens.

I am thrilled to be part of an organization that has become a catalyst for the more than 75,000 jobs and more than $14 billion in investment in the state since 2011. These jobs and investment numbers, supported by close to 400 company relocation or expansion announcements, have seen an 86 percent job increase and 70 percent investment increase since 2008. It's no wonder our state is climbing in the rankings of CNBC, Entrepreneur, Forbes and Site Selection magazines.

Georgia's outstanding year in global commerce is a by-product of our pro-business environment. When companies look to relocate or expand, they mainly consider the efficiency of a state's logistics network, the quality of the workforce and the low cost of doing business. These key aspects have been the foundation from which our No. 1 business climate has been built.

The state ranks No. 1
development.

Today's businesses are more globalized than ever. A company's need to access key global markets remains vital to staying ahead of competition. Sixteen of Georgia's Fortune 500 companies can access 80 percent of the U.S. market using Hartsfield-Jackson International Airport. Our transportation network, including 5,000 miles of rail, connects in less than two days to 80 percent of the U.S. market.

Georgia's deep-water ports host more than 40 lines of shipping service and assist companies in gaining access to 70 percent of the nation's population.

A primary building block of Georgia's business climate is our highly skilled workforce. The state ranks No. 1 in workforce development and has one of the largest university systems in the U.S. It houses more than 50,000 annual graduates from 31 public colleges and universities. Georgia Quick Start, our workforce program, has trained more than 1 million Georgians and continues to be one of our greatest resources.

These are exciting times for our state, and we will continue to advocate Georgia as the best place to do business.

Ernie Spencer is a Knight for 50 Years !!

This award is probably the most difficult KofC award to attain.

The honoree must be at least 68 years of age, since membership must begin at a minimum of 18 years. He must have paid his dues for 50 years without fail and been active without a service break --- through job changes, residence moves, periods of military service, lean times, sickness, and who knows what.

Ernie has done all that and has been a Grand Knight more than once (All Saints included), been the Faithful Navigator of a fourth degree Assembly, been a District Deputy, has started new councils, been a member of ceremonial exemplification teams, been an honor guard, been an honor guard commander, been an acolyte, been a committee chairman, has been to just about every event our council and his former councils have attempted. (He lacks only two miracles to be canonized a saint.)

Only Tom Burleigh and Ernie have gotten this award from our council thus far.

We wish him only happiness in every moment he has left on this earth and we thank the Lord for his service and example.

Jim Masak Wins $100 Annuity

Brother Jim Masak had his name pulled from among those first year brothers attending the November meeting. He received a $100 KofC annuity account and now counts as an insurance member. New members have a good statistical chance to win an annuity at every meeting.

Christ Renews His Parish (CRHP) Completes

The just-completed men's CRHP retreat on November 9/10 looked like a monthly Knight's Council meeting. Just about every man attending was a brother. With our 440 members, we should be able to staff even more of these in the future.

“Knight to Knight” Corner

December Tip -- “Think You are Too Old for Coverage? Think Again

You are never too young or too old to consider purchasing life insurance. If you have a financial need for coverage, or will in the future, a permanent life insurance policy can be just the thing you need.

When you are young and presumably healthy, coverage will be very inexpensive when compared to purchasing the same policies when you are older.

If you've put off purchasing coverage, or you realize that you may need additional insurance, the Order may still be able to help you, even if other companies cannot. In fact, in 2012, the issue age of our permanent life insurance products was extended to age 80. Naturally, your health, and whether or not you smoke, will be taken into consideration, so underwriting standards for risk and age apply.

This change came in response to a question I've heard before: “My wife and I are almost 80, do the Knights offer anything to take care of our final expenses?” And it can also help the members who thought they were “too old” to attain our coverage.

This extension of our coverage ages allows me to help members I couldn't help before. I look forward to discussing coverage with you.
