Grand Knight's Report

Brothers:

Let me tell you what I love about being a Knight. The Knights, specifically Council 11402, walk the walk! We lend a helping hand to those who cannot help themselves. We actually do the work of our Lord, Jesus Christ.

It's fantastic that we fulfill our Sunday obligation each week, but I have a feeling when St. Peter meets us at the pearly gates, he is going to want to know that we did more than just worship on Sunday. He will want to know what we did to help our fellow man. Instead of stumbling for an answer, we'll simply tell him, "I was an active Knight of Columbus." Enough said. If you haven't volunteered for a project lately, please consider it.

Speaking of projects, the Knights of Columbus were once again called on to be the sole food provider for the Soap Box Derby. And once again, the council did not disappoint the Dunwoody community. Not only do we do a bang-up job selling hot dogs and hamburgers, but also had a number of Brothers volunteer to help the race, itself. If you volunteered for Saturday, please pat yourself on the back!

As many of you know, our June 4th business meeting marks our yearly elections. While the elections, at times, can be anticlimactic, it is important that you attend and cast your vote. It's your opportunity to help set the future course for the council.

All officer positions are on the ballot (save for financial secretary and lecturer, appointed by the Grand Knight, and Financial Secretary, appointed by the Supreme Knight). Brothers who have achieved 3rd degree are eligible for any/all positions. Nominations from the floor are encouraged. I do hope you plan to attend.

The treasurer's report at the June business meeting will reveal that our coffers are overflowing with funds. On the surface, this is a good sign. However, it also signifies that we are not finding worthy charities to share our blessings.

Brothers, always be thinking of charitable organizations that our council can support. This past year, we honored some worthy individuals in the form of statues and memorials, but I would like to see less of that, and more of our funds going to the poor and less fortunate. A statue is nice, but $1,000 - and a work project - for an organization like the Elaine Clark Center - does much more for those who really need it. We would be following the wonderful example being set by Pope Francis (see page 8 of this newsletter).

Quite a few congratulations are in order for members of our council. I'd like to personally congratulate the record 18 Brothers in our council who advanced to full Knighthood this past month by taking part in a 3rd degree exemplification. You are now eligible to become an officer within the council!

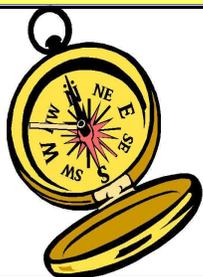

Congratulations go out to the ten Brothers who will be honored by Archbishop Gregory in October for celebrating either their 50th or 60th wedding anniversary in 2013 - what an amazing accomplishment in this day and age when so many take the sacrament of marriage so lightly.

Finally, congratulations to Monsignor Kiernan on his 64th anniversary as a priest. Monsignor, we greatly miss your wisdom and humor. It's comforting to know that you're only a few miles away.

Vivat Jesus

Frank Kler is Latest New Knight

Sir Knight Bryan Kler asked the council for a special favor this month. He asked us to move up our scheduled 1st degree ceremony one week, so that his father who was in town could join the Order. Since Bryan is the Ceremonial Grand Knight for the 1st degree ceremonies, we could hardly refuse him.

Frank Kler, 66, from Cocoa, Florida became our brother on May 21st along with two other candidates from St. Thomas Aquinas Council. He will soon transfer to a local Florida council once his membership number is given and he requests transfer by his chosen council. It was a rare treat for him to be ushered into the Order with his son playing a major ceremonial role.

Soap Box Derby Preparations at McGivney

Once again our Knights McGivney Hall is being used as the construction and testing site for a dozen racers.

The race is on Saturday, June 1, at the parking lot of the First Baptist Church on N. Peachtree and I-285 about 9 AM.

We will again be the food vendors of choice for the event. Please help out with the food services if you can.

Archbishop Honors 50/60th Wedding Anniversaries

Archbishop Wilton Gregory has invited all Catholic couples in the diocese who were married in 1953 and 1963 to a dinner honoring their 50/60 year wedding anniversaries. He hosts a dinner like this every year.

The All Saints council has an astounding 10 couples who qualify this year. I hope they will all read this article from the Georgia Bulletin and send in their RSVP to attend this gala affair at St. Brigid Church on Old Alabama Road on Saturday, Oct. 5th at noon. We see a great All Saints newsletter article coming.

They should enjoy being in the large All Saints contingent with their brothers. Note that two brothers were married on the exact same date. The qualifying members are:

Ray Gustin	Jo	2/11/1953
John Ketter	Mary Ann	4/20/1963
John Buchholz	Karleen	5/18/1963
Keith Kieffer	Janet	6/1/1963
Jim McGill	Jackie	8/10/1963
Frank Seco de Lucena	Alice	8/10/1963
John Martin	Maria	9/7/1963
Joe Kane	Judith	9/14/1963
Frank Paolozzi	Pat	10/7/1963
Dave Jeanson	Patricia	10/10/1963

Congratulations and God bless to all of you. Our council leads the way year after year with marriages lasting 50 years. Next year we expect a group about this large again.

If you know any non-knight Catholic couples in the diocese that were married in these years, please let them know of this event.

Annual Mass To Honor Couples Married 50, 60 Years

JOHNS CREEK—Archbishop Wilton D. Gregory will honor couples married in 1963 and 1953 at the annual golden/diamond wedding anniversary Mass.

This year's anniversary Mass, recognizing marriages lasting 50 and 60 years, will be held on Saturday, Oct. 5, at 12 p.m. at St. Brigid Church in Johns Creek. A reception will follow the Mass for the anniversary couples and their families.

Space is limited so an RSVP is requested.

St. Brigid Church is located at 3400 Old Alabama Road in Johns Creek.

Visit <http://tiny.cc/anniversarymass> for more information and to RSVP for the event.

Council Dues are now Council Overdues

Our Council Financial Secretary advises that 42 members out of our 420+ members have still not paid their dues for 2013. The first notice went out at the beginning of the year, a second notice went out later, and now a "Knight Alert" letter was mailed advising that members could be suspended for ignoring their obligations.

If you have been suffering due to financial difficulties, please advise our FS in private and he will take your situation under advisement. In any event, please contact the FS at:

Elections at June 4th Business Meeting

Our Tuesday, June 4th, Business Meeting will be our Fraternal Year election meeting. The fraternal year extends from July 1st 2013 to June 30th 2014. Please make a serious effort to attend, since our elections are most important to the future functioning of the council. Members must attend the meeting to vote. There are no absentee ballots allowed. Members must have paid their dues to be eligible to either vote or run for office.

Every brother, 3rd degree or 4th degree, is eligible to run for any office. I hope that anyone who is not currently an officer, but wishes to run, will immediately notify a member of the Nominating Committee. That committee consists of Stan Wasowski, Don Myers, and Lou Hlad, the three council trustees.

The Nominating Committee surveys current officers to see if they wish to run for another term and gives their recommendations to the council. These are only recommendations and may be can be ignored by the voters. An eligible member may even be nominated from the floor just before the voting for that office at the Business Meeting.

Most of our officers wish to return, making the Nominating Committee's recommendations easy this year. Only Chancellor Frank Callan has transferred to St. Catherine Of Sienna Council in Kennesaw and will need to be replaced. Trustee 1-Year, Lou Hlad, slides off the officer list as the trustees move down one slot each. A new Trustee 3-year term must be selected. The Chaplain and Lecturer offices are appointed by the Grand Knight and are not elected positions. The Financial Secretary is appointed by the Supreme Knight.

The Nominating Committee recommends:

Grand Knight-	Bob Fiscella	(incumbent)
Deputy Grand Knight-	Dean Trantow	(incumbent)
Chancellor-	Bill Camden
Advocate-	Brian (BJ) Van Gundy	(incumbent)
Warden-	Pat Fahey	(incumbent)
Recorder-	Ed Trainor	(incumbent)
Treasurer-	Mario Commito	(incumbent)

Inside Guard-	Ed Pierson (incumbent) Bill Luckert Bryan St. Romain	One officer selected. Losing candidates as assistants.
---------------	--	--

Outside Guard-	Mark Foster (incumbent) Bill Schmitz (incumbent)	Our bylaws allow two Outside Guard officers
----------------	---	---

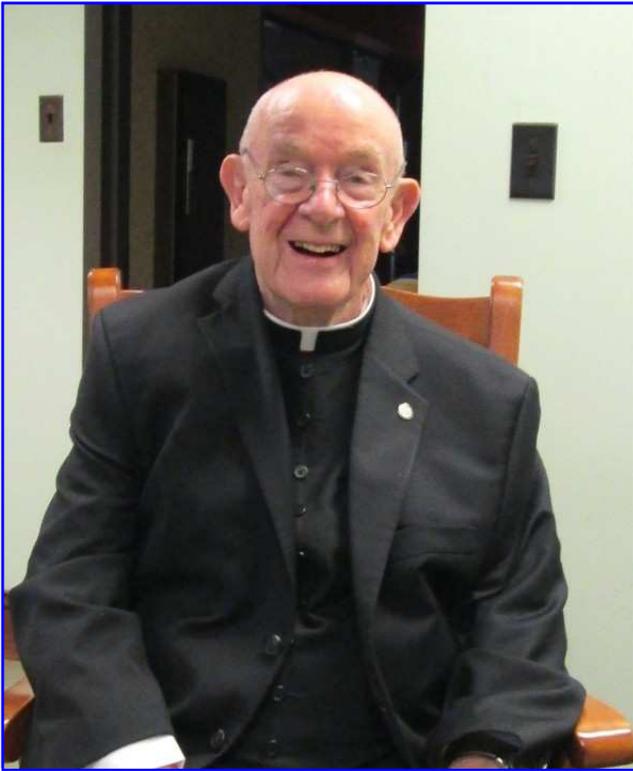

Trustee 3-Year Term-	Tom Mix	(the only election is for a Trustee-3-Year term)
Trustee 2-Year Term-	Stan Wasowski	(former 3-year term Trustee)
Trustee 1-Year Term-	Don Myers	(former 2-Year Trustee)

Please advise immediately if you wish to run for any of these offices (provided you have achieved the 3rd-degree level). All elected officers must partake in the Officer Installation Ceremony to be held in late June (to be announced). If unable to attend, they must provide a stand-in to receive their jewel of office from the District Deputy.

Vivat Jesus,

Lou Hlad 770-394-6327
Chairman of Nominating Committee

Monsignor Kiernan's 64th Priestly Anniversary

Our beloved brother Sir Knight Monsignor Donald Kiernan sits in the rectory just before his Mass that commemorated his 64th anniversary as a priest. He was able to actually celebrate the Mass with the help of a walker and some trusty deacons assisting him.

Monsignor Marren concelebrated the event. A packed congregation at the 5 PM Saturday May 4th Mass made it very memorable. A full honor guard of twelve Sir Knights from the Fr. Charles J. Watters Assembly added pizzazz to the gala celebration.

Monsignor Kiernan now resides at the St. George Village in Roswell, but makes it a point to attend the 5 PM Saturday mass at All Saints whenever he is able. It was nice to see him up on the altar that day instead of in the front pew. God bless our brother.

Council Helps Fund Local Memorial Day Event

Marist, Vietnam veterans honor one of their own

The Atlanta Vietnam Veterans Business Association and Marist School partnered for Memorial Day weekend to honor a Marist alumnus who died heroically in Vietnam. The faculty and student body gathered to watch a military service and the unveiling of a monument to John Carroll, U.S. Air Force and Marist, class of 1958.

Crier photos: Rebecca Chase Williams and Samantha Evans

Our brother, Sir Knight Jon Bird, alerted us to the fact that a local Memorial Day remembrance for a fallen Marist grad was taking place and needed some funding. The council voted $500 to help pay for the plaque placed at Marist School to honor Major John L. Carroll who died in Laos in 1972 while fighting in the Vietnam War.

Bird is a retired army colonel and is a member of the Atlanta Vietnam Business Association (AAVBA) which places a memorial every year in the area. Air Force Major Carroll was a true hero who held off two companies of enemies before he gave his life helping others escape. We are proud of our event participation.

Benedict XVI vs. Francis

In these photos taken of the two popes on their papal throne, there are seven differences showing the different styles of the office holder. It is up to the viewer to determine which is preferred for a Roman Catholic pope.

In this photo there are 6 differences

- 1. Changed the golden throne by a wooden chair ... something more appropriate for the disciple of a carpenter.*
- 2. Did not want the gold-embroidered red stole, heir of the Roman Empire, nor the red cape...*
- 3. Uses same old black shoes, not the classic red.*
- 4. Uses a metal cross, not of rubies and diamonds.*
- 5. His papal ring is silver, not gold.*
- 6. Uses the same black pants under the cassock, to remember that he is another priest.*

Have you discovered the 7th?

*Removed the red carpet ...
He is not interested in fame and applause ...*

All Saints at Georgia State Convention

All Saints Council was well-represented at the 2013 KofC Georgia State Convention in Savannah this year. Dean and Mary Trantow hold their prize raffle basket along with Kathy and Stan Wasowski. At top right, Marty and Lou Hlad pose in the lobby of the Marriott Riverfront Hotel.

John Knight and Monsignor Marren also attended. John helped run the insurance hospitality suite, and Monsignor was the hit of the convention with a humorous speech on the differences between husbands and wives (how does he know?) About 400 folks in tuxedos and evening gowns made quite a sight.

Georgia ex-Coach Vince Dooley Visits Men's Club

Just a bit on the Men's Club visit by Vince Dooley. Attached is a photo of Vince Dooley and myself .

The Knights of Columbus were well-represented for the occasion. Vince gave a good talk about his life as a coach and family man. Vince has written several books and had them for sale with signed autographs.

We all enjoyed getting together, talking football and having dinner and fellowship without the work of frying fish or cutting potatoes. It was a great break and a good time was had by all.

Respectfully,

Bill Camden

Amazing Youth of All Saints Council

New Face In The Vocations Office

(From Georgia Bulletin)

By ANDREW NELSON Staff Writer

SMYRNA—Adam Lindenau was recently appointed the associate vocations director, working with director Father Tim Hepburn to help young people in the Archdiocese of Atlanta discern God's will in their lives.

The 22-year-old lives in Dunwoody and attends All Saints Church, Dunwoody. Engaged to be married on July 6, Lindenau was the guiding force in getting the youth program, XLT Atlanta (held at Studio ONE at All Saints), off the ground. He continues to run the XLT events.

He recently answered a few questions for The Georgia Bulletin.

Georgia Bulletin: What appealed to you about the position at the vocations office?

Brother Sean Mercer, 24, is another bright face on the All Saints youth scene. Partnering with Adam Lindenau to direct the youth activities around Studio One and the parish.

Lindenau: I have known Father Tim for years and have always admired the priesthood. I discerned the priesthood throughout high school and my freshman year in college. But I obviously discovered that God was leading me into a different vocation. So it is with much joy and honor that I now have the opportunity to work in the vocations office and create opportunities for men and women to find their true vocations.

GB: What are your responsibilities at the vocations office?

Lindenau: My job title is associate director of vocations. My role is to be Father Tim's front end to the office. I am to create opportunities for men and women to experience God and know that he is calling them to holiness. Once they realize that, we will have the resources and opportunities necessary for them to pursue the priesthood, religious life, marriage or single life.

GB: What were you doing before taking your current position?

Lindenau: I was the studio producer at All Saints Studio ONE and their middle school youth minister. I am also in school at SCAD (Savannah College of Art and Design) Atlanta for advertising.

GB: What do you do for fun, any hobbies? What books are you reading, favorite music?

Lindenau: I love all extreme sports—snowboarding, wakeboarding, surfing. I have a passion for the arts—photography, film, painting. I really enjoy listening to all music, except heavy metal and bluegrass country. I am currently reading "The Shadow of His Wings: The True Story of Fr. Gereon Goldmann, OFM."

Adam Lindenau (Photo by Michael Alexander)

Brother Adam Lindenau, 22, is now the Associate Director of Vocations for the Archdiocese of Atlanta. He will be an aide to Fr. Tim Hepburn who is the Director. His position as studio director of the All Saints Studio One studio and middle school director at All Saints puts him in a primary position to steer youngsters into the religious vocational direction. He also holds the title of XLT Atlanta Executive Director. We hope to do an article on the XLT project in a future newsletter.

Adam's good friend, Sean Mercer, is the Life Teen Director and is in a primary vocation position as well. We are blessed having such amazing young brothers among our numbers.

Bill Camden's Shining Armor Award

Bill Camden,
Super Star

John Knight, Insurance agent

Just last month we awarded Bill Camden the Knight-of-the-Month Award. Now he has just qualified for the Shining Armor Award. The man is a real comer. He just became a member this January and he is already a 3rd degree and poised to become an officer.

He will be running for the very challenging position of Chancellor, which oversees the programs including membership and retention. In other words, he will be vying to become the next Frank Callan, who recently transferred to St. Catherine of Sienna Council when he moved to the Kennesaw area.

We should mention that Bill will become a 4th degree Sir Knight on June 8th!!

Frank Callan Shining Armor Award

It was kind of a bittersweet moment when John Knight (right) handed our outgoing Chancellor, Frank Callan, his Shining Armor Award. It would be the last time Frank appeared in front of our council to except one of his seemingly-constant awards. He is transferring to the Catherine of Siena Council in Kennesaw, since he has moved his residence over there. Our great loss will be their great gain. He will rebuild their membership. God bless, Frank.

Council Benevolence/Charity/Service

Council continues sponsoring Fr. Bill Hoa's bi-monthly widowers bereavement meetings in McGivney Hall .

Council continues its Fathers for Good seminars into the fourth year.

Council passed a resolution to donate $500 toward a memorial plaque event at Marist High School to honor fallen Air Force Major John Carroll at a Memorial Day Ceremony. Requested by Jon Bird.

Council donated $1,000 for a Catholic student scholarship for the National Football Foundation. Requested by Dennis Caniglia.

Council discussed $500 donation for wounded veteran pilgrimage to Lourdes requested by tom Burleigh. Tabled until June and may be increased to $1,000.

Council voted $1,000 to the All Saints Pre-school to purchase a stroller that can handle several children. Requested by BJ Van Gundy.

June Insurance Tip --- “Our Guarantees Set Us Apart”

Knights of Columbus life insurance offers something precious few other financial products can – guarantees. As long as you pay your premiums, the policy proceeds will be there for your beneficiaries should something happen to you. We call that peace of mind, and that’s what we offer with our every product in our portfolio.

We guarantee the cash value in your whole life policies will be there.

We guarantee the rates on your term insurance.

We guarantee our retirement products will provide a stream of income when you need it.

On top of those product guarantees, I guarantee that I will offer professional, high-quality service that you would expect from our organization.

Our Order is among the highest rated life insurers in North America. AM Best has rated the Knights of Columbus “A++, Superior” for 37 consecutive years. This shows our track record for excellence and security.

I would suggest that a principal reason that we were able to achieve those accolades is because we remain steadfastly committed to the vision of Father Michael J. McGivney by providing life insurance by brother Knights for brother Knights.

That commitment is an essential core value of the Knights of Columbus, and our core values permeate all levels of our organization. These principles for marketing are summed up by our Golden Rule: “In all my professional relationships, I pledge myself to the following rule of conduct: I shall, in light of all conditions surrounding those I serve, render that service which, under the same circumstances, I would apply to myself.”

Let’s talk soon to discuss how our products can bring that peace of mind to you and your family.

Memento Mori

Winifred R. Plunkett, 91, mother of Sir Knight Gray Plunkett, passed away on May 6th. Several brothers, Monsignor Marren, members of the All Saints Choir attended her funeral at St. Martin-in-the-Fields church. Please pray for her, Gray, and the family for the repose of the soul of this extraordinary woman.

The Fr. Charles J. Watters 4th Degree Assembly Organization will honor Michael A. Klimshuk, Edward J. Pavlik, and Marcus Carroll on the latest chalice it is purchasing for delivery to a new priest. These three Sir Knights were all members of the All Saints Council. Perpetual remembrance at Mass is just one benefit of becoming a 4th degree Sir Knight. A funeral honor guard is another.
