ALL SAINTS COMPASS

Grand Knight's Report

Worthy Brothers:

We are in the home stretch of another Fraternal Year. As I look back at all that has been accomplished I remain humbled by the sheer volume of effort our Council has put forth this year.

Each individual member has played a role in the success of our programs, charitable giving, parish support or support of our Brothers and their families. Allow me to thank you now, lest my gratitude get lost in the work that remains before us.

I am very excited about the number and quality of new members we have brought into the Council this year. However, we have also had a significant number of brothers depart our ranks for one reason or another. I am asking that we focus for the next 6 weeks on bringing every qualified candidate we can find into our Council.

If each brother would simply ask one Catholic Gentleman to join our order, I am confident we would have enough say "yes" to ensure the continued growth and success of our Council. Please reflect on who you can ask to join our Order and make the effort to extend a personal invitation to join. Let their good work in our Order be a part of your legacy as a Knight.

Another way to leave your mark on our Council is to serve in one of the many Officer or Committee chair roles. The yoke of leading such a large Council is certainly a heavy burden. However, when the load is shared among willing and able Brothers each man's burden is light.

I hope that any who have asked "How can I do more?" will consider approaching our Brother Knight Guy Stryker to inquire about nominations, or will talk to Deputy Grand Knight Greg Crnkovich about roles for next year.

Jim Miranda

I would like to thank Deacon Ray for leading the day of reflection. All the feedback I have received indicates this was a worthwhile endeavor that added to the spiritual strength of our Council and its members. Remember to sign up for the weekend retreat later this summer. It is sure to be an edifying event.

Recently my family and I have been watching the A&E documentary "God or the Girl". It chronicles the journey of discernment of 4 young men. The show has served as a catalyst for my family to renew our prayers for vocations.

I would ask that each of you make prayer for the vocations a part of your weekly devotion, and keep our Brothers who are in formation to become Priests or Deacons at the forefront of your prayers.

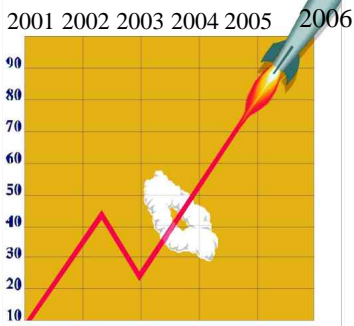

I pray that God will continue to bless you and yours and that the joy of this Easter season will bring light and happiness to each of you. God Bless!

Vivat Jesus!!!

Jim Miranda

Final Fish Fry Facts

Sales—Off the Charts

All wrapped up and put away, the 2006 “Tony Ardagna” Memorial Fish Fry, was by far the most successful in our history.

For 8 nights (i.e. the “practice” fry for Knight families only, the Ash Wednesday fry, and six successive Friday frys), our final official tally showed a 10% increase over last year (which in itself was our most successful year.)

We were running comfortably ahead of our record pace when the “Dunwoody Crier” saw fit to feature our Fish Fry on Page One of their March 22nd edition with a color picture. This actually caused many more people outside the parish to discover us. This made our “famous” Knights of Columbus Fish Dinners even more famous! About 100 to 200 more patrons than normal attended on the last few evenings. We hope they become regulars.

Final 2006 event totals for meals delivered were 144 (Knights only), 543 (Ash Wednesday), 623, 918, 617 (St. Patrick’s Day – meat was allowed), 987, 931, 858. This yielded a grand total of 5621 meals delivered. Although we approached (but failed to break) our amazing single night record of 1,012, this year featured 3 of our 4 best nightly totals. Our new unpublicized trial offer of an $8 baked salmon entrée for the last few events proved to be surprisingly popular.

We believe that our regular meal prices ($7 adults, $6 seniors, $4 kids) are so attractive that it doesn’t make sense to take any family out to eat anywhere else on the Fridays of Lent. We must continue to work diligently to keep future prices low. Good planning and the unselfish labor of the Knights and other volunteers make these exceptional values possible.

We thanked Monsignor Kiernan for quickly replacing the failing 20-year-old oven we so fully depended upon to bake fish and side orders. We thanked the church staff for publicizing our events so well in both print and from the altar. Thanks especially to Brother Greg Crnkovich, our Fish Fry Chairman, and Brothers Ray Gustin and Frank and Mike Paolozzi for overseeing the nightly operations. Pat Callahan ran the membership table that garnered us lots of good new membership leads. Fifty others worked very long, hard hours. You know who you are.

May God bless each of you and your families. We pray that our efforts have created an environment in the Parish that will lead to greater community, enhanced family relationships, and devotion to our faith. See you all next year!

The Wittmans — Another Golden Couple

Joe and Evelyn Wittman will celebrate their 50th wedding anniversary on May 19th.

Introduced by a mutual friend while Joe was attending St. John’s University in Brooklyn, they were surprised to learn that they both worked at Royal Globe Insurance. He worked part-time and Evelyn full-time in the Data Processing Department.

In 1955, Joe joined the K of C Glendale Council, graduated from St. John’s, joined the US Navy and went on active duty in May. He was commissioned an Ensign and assigned to Aviation Maintenance. He and Evelyn became engaged in December.

In 1956, he and Evelyn were married by an old friend, Monsignor Tom Hendel, and soon after Joe left for an extended cruise. He served on two carriers (USS Saratoga and USS Forrestal). His naval career exceeded 23 years and he retired from the Navy Reserve in 1978 as a Commander.

Joe was active with the Knights for several years, until job relocations and family commitments intervened. He moved from New York City to Atlanta as Group Vice President of NDC in 1980. Soon after Council 11402 was created, Joe reapplied for activation of membership. He served in our Council as Retention and Recruiting Chairman and helped in the renovation of McGivney Hall by doing much of the tile work. Through all this, Evelyn kept the home fires burning.

His newest career is Adjunct Instructor with Gwinnett Technical College teaching Small Business Accounting. This position requires classroom presence on Tuesdays and Thursdays and again creates conflicts with K of C activities.

Evelyn and Joe are blessed with five children (Richard, Patricia, Robert, Marianne and Joseph) and three grandchildren (Christine, John and Elizabeth.) The Council wishes them many more years of happiness!!!

Congratulatory notes should be sent to: 6180 Forest Hills Drive, Norcross, Georgia 30092

Acolytes – Never Too Old to be Altar Boys

If you thought the average age of an altar server was about nine years old, any time you attend a funeral at All Saints Church your estimate could easily be fifty years too low. All funerals in our parish are served by Knights of Columbus acolyte teams, per the strong preference of our pastor and Council Chaplain, Monsignor Kiernan. Other pastors look on in extreme admiration at this large pool of men that All Saints utilizes who are devoted to this very unique ministry.

As Acolyte Activity Director, Sir Knight David Moeller serves as “minister” of the acolytes. He advises, cajoles, outfits, recruits, and schedules 47 other volunteer Brothers to serve funeral masses (which, of course, can not be planned far in advance). Usually, a full complement of five or six available Knight acolytes must be assembled for each funeral in a couple of days.

Working with Moeller are four team captains — Brothers Norbert Braza, Guy Stryker, Alfred Garafalo, and Gert Kampfer. Each has a group of prospective acolyte volunteers that form his “team.” A fifth standby group of Saturday or part-time alternates is available. Church staffers contact Moeller when a funeral is scheduled. He keeps a log of all funerals and calls the next captain in rotation, who in turn calls his own team members. Captains have the complete acolyte roster in case they have to substitute using someone from another team.

Acolytes have a special “uniform” that consists of grey slacks, a white shirt, a blue blazer, and that special blue Knights of Columbus logo tie. It is this stately appearance of a squad of mature men on the altar that gives All Saints’ funerals such a unique and noble stamp. Acolyte volunteers tend to be older because most funerals are held during working hours and being retired enhances general availability. Some special training is required, especially for altar setup, processional etiquette, incense ceremony, and general synchronization of team movement.

Since many of the people who attend our funerals are non-Catholics or members of other parishes, the Knights leave an indelible impression on all who witness their reverent ceremonials. If the deceased happened to be a Knight or one of his direct family members, it is common for a Knight Honor Guard to also participate along with their Brother acolytes.

Any Knight may participate in this wonderful All Saints acolyte ministry. The pay is modest— a handsome blue silk tie with the repeating K of C logo pattern. It is a very special privilege and a sacred honor that our Brotherhood has been singularly requested by their clergy to serve the Church and the community “ad altare Dei” — “to the altar of God.”

These are the current teams. Call Dave Moeller at 770-394-5085 to participate, even if only part-time or on weekends.

The Good of the Order

Please offer daily prayers for Brothers and their relatives that are sick or in distress:

- Mark Balmes (open heart surgery) Ken Winkler’s wife, Patsy
- Matt Dewhurst Sal D’Ambrosio (past State Deputy) Joe Cavallaro’s sister, Carol Reither
- Mike Manning Tom Simon’s brother, Jack John DaRin’s wife, Charlotte
- William O’Connor Don Myers’ wife, Delores Benny Mastrogiovanni’s son
- Bob Mohalley Ralph Stinson’s wife, Mary Jane
- Frank Welter (new hip) Frank Welter’s wife, Margaret

R.I.P.

*“Requiescat
in

Your very special prayers are asked for our recently dearly departed:

- Richard P. Steiner — age 72, 3rd degree Brother of Council 11402 died on March 17th after a long illness. Please pray for him and wife Judy of 40 years. Our council was notified late of his death.
- Arthurlyn Burleigh — age 65, beloved wife of Tom Burleigh died very suddenly on 4/25. Please pray for them.
- Joanne Broshar — age 74, sister of Frank Welter passed away. Continue praying for Frank and Margaret.
- Hiroko Fujino — age 66, sister-in-law of Jon Bird passed away in Yamato City, Japan after a long illness. Please remember Jon and wife Yoshii in your prayers.

5th Annual “Ken Giddes Memorial Golf Tournament”

See WWW.STMARLO.COM

This year again, the All Saints Men's Club (ASMC) and our Council will both support and participate in the Ken Giddes Memorial Golf Tournament, that benefits the Lung Cancer Patients and the Lung Cancer Caring Ambassadors Program, a Non-Profit Corporation. The tournament is chaired by ASMC Member and Brother Tom Simon. Ken Giddes was a longtime Dunwoody resident who died of lung cancer.

This year's date is Monday, May 15th, with shotgun start at 1:00 PM, at the St. Marlo Country Club in Duluth Georgia. Arrive early for practice on the range prior to tee off. Buffet dinner follows after golf. See St. Marlo web site address under picture.

Entries are due immediately (May 1) in the amount of $100 per participant. You should have received an email from Tom Simon (tom@caringambassadors.org) already with the tournament details, Official Entry Form, and directions to the course. Tom may also be contacted at 770-451-4749 and faxed at 770-451-4225.

Last year's event had 124 participants, many raffle items, prizes for winning team, runner up team, closest to the Hole, longest drive and a New Car for a Hole-In-One. Tom Hollis Colonial Pontiac will award a new car for a Hole-in-One this year. Mulligans are available for $5.00 and 3 for $10.00. Tee and green sponsorships are available for $200 with identification signs on each hole. Tom is in need of Raffle Items and Silent Auction Items for the Tournament, as well as Hole Sponsorships.

Last year's Silent Auction consisted of over 40 items on which to bid. This year plans to be just as successful with auctions on sports, golf, travel, and memorabilia. Please plan to participate in this worthwhile cause.

Eucharistic Congress — Banner Bearers Needed

This year's Eucharistic Congress on Saturday June 17th is right around the corner. This extraordinary event is held annually at the Atlanta Convention Center adjacent to Hartsfield-Jackson International Airport.

Crowds typically number about 20,000 and the day is filled with interesting booths, breakout sessions, parades, good guest speakers, and Mass celebration. The K of C Color Corps is always there in impressive strength to lend pomp and circumstance. This would be a great day to march with an army in full regalia. The Assembly has three spare sets for 4th degree members without it.

All Saints Parish is in need of a couple of men to carry our church banner in the gala parade of Catholic organizations. Our Father Charles J. Watters Assembly likewise has a large banner that must be carried. Ernie Spencer is the contact for that effort.

Please contact Greg Crnkovich or Ed Krise if you can be of assistance in carrying the All Saints Parish banner. Please attend.

First “Day of Reflection” Completed. Retreat Date Set.

On Sunday April 2nd, the first Council Day of Reflection was held at Marist Chapel. Fifteen Brother Knights attended, along with Brother Deacon Ray Egan and Brother Rev. Dan McCormick. Father Adam Ozimek also attended and heard afternoon confessions.

Deacon Ray gave three homilies regarding “Forgiveness and Reconciliation”. The discussion was lively and several attendees relayed their original impressions of this sacrament from their youthful past and compared them with the modern era. There were two opportunities for quiet time with strolling around the beautiful Marist campus.

Church Activity Director Frank Callan coordinated the event very capably and Brother John Buchholz made sure no one went home hungry or thirsty.

Attending were Brothers John Buchholz, Frank Callan, Joe Cavallaro, Lou Hlad, Greg Crnkovich, John Francis, Al Garofalo, Jack Klapka, Michael Klimshuk, Jim Knapp, Ed Krise, Jim Mammoser, Ernie Spencer, Guy Stryker, and Dave Webster. Frank Callan elicited email comments both positive and negative from the attendees in an effort to make all future such events even more meaningful.

Our next scheduled religious exercise is a Weekend Retreat on August 26/27. We are thrilled to have Father Brian Higgins, the Vocations Director for the Archdiocese of Atlanta, as our the retreat master speaking on the Eucharist. The cost for food, board, and all the sanctifying grace you can carry is only $95 per attendee at the beautiful Simpsonwood Conference Center in Norcross.

Vidalia Onions -- Making Dollars and Scents (the saga continues)

After four years of conservative marketing, our All Saints Council has (in this, its fifth venture) suddenly become one of the area's primary purveyors of the pungent plant known as the onion. (After all, cookies and popcorn were already taken by Scout groups.)

In late April, a truck loaded with 1750 ten-pound bags of the edible Asian lily bulb reached Atlanta from our Glennville, Georgia supplier located about 35 miles southeast of Vidalia. The load went straight to the Courier South Company warehouse of Sir Knight Ed Krise for storage, restacking on pallets, and subdividing into smaller lots. Ed quickly arranged for a local truck to deliver shipments to five partner councils. We sincerely hope the smell has evaporated from his premises by now. <<<<(See Ed at work — far left).

Our past successful onion marketing enterprises had not gone unnoticed by other area councils. This year the cargo was subdivided with 300 bags going to St. Andrew, 300 to St. Peter Chanel, 300 to St. Michael the Archangel in Woodstock, 150 to St. Benedict, and 250 to St. Joseph Council in Athens. All Saints levied a very modest shipping and handling fee to the other organizations and kept the remaining 450 bags (which is becoming our sales comfort level).

Last year rain and cold delayed shipments over two weeks until Mother's Day. We still managed to sell our consignment of 450 bags for $8 each. This season's great weather produced a bumper crop of excellent quality. Again 450 bags were sold (for $9 each) on the weekend of April 22/23 after all Masses at the church exits. The final 36 bags were sold after the 6:00 PM Sunday Mass. The very last bag was purchased by an altar boy heading home at 6:55 PM. The first $2,000 of our profits will be donated to the All Saints Parish Heritage Fund to complete our total Council pledge of $6,000.

We sincerely thank the large group of 75 Brothers and spouses that volunteered to cover all doors at all masses. Some volunteers worked multiple masses and some actually worked all masses that weekend.

Special thanks go to Sir Knight John Buchholz, Worthy Grand Onion, and wife Karleen for organizing this complex undertaking again this year. He has always been a "marketeer extraordinaire." Selling Vidalia onions was his brainchild and has been a lucrative venture for us. We hope it was likewise for the other five councils participating. >> right - John Buchholz (front) and Benny Mastrogiovanni

Brand New Brother Knights

Council 11402 initiated three new Brothers at the March 28th 1st Degree Exemplification. Ben Frye, John Paul (great name), and Damon Paolozzi (yes, another Paolozzi) stood for membership. Here is an information capsule for each. Please make them welcome.

Ben Frye is 26 years old and has been married just under two years. His wife's name is Cindy and they are expecting their first child on June 11th. He is a PC Technician and a graduate of Savannah College of Art and Design. His sponsor is Greg Moss. He's been in Atlanta 3 years.

John Paul is 33 years old and married just under four years. He and wife Erin have one child (Madeline). He is in Audio Visual Sales and is a Musician/Technophile. At All Saints for 28 years. Sponsored by Greg Crnkovich. He is working on his degree.

Damon Paolozzi is 33 years old. Wife's name Becky. Occupation is Corporate Chef. Has BS/BA and MBA in Business Administration and special degrees in Culinary Arts, Cooking, Baking, and Culinary Creole & Cajun. Paolozzi's have been at All Saints for 30 years.

“Welcome to the 4th Degree” Social & Dinner

On Thursday, April 20th, our Fr. Charles J. Watters Assembly 2688 hosted an elegant social and dinner at the Rivermont Golf & Country Club. The event welcomed all of our Assembly’s freshly-minted 4th degree knights from the April 1st exemplification ceremony at the Airport Westin Hotel. Two of these newest Sir Knights belonged to St. Brigid Council 13204 and the other eight represented our own All Saints Council 11402 (including a unique father and son team.) The ten new members are listed alphabetically below.

We welcome all these new Assembly members and dedicate this page to them. May they become even more important and active leaders in our Brotherhood. We hope they all participate in the Color Corps activities.

Assembly Memorial Chalice Ministry

Assembly 2688 presents a chalice each year in memory of those 4th degree Knights who have died during that Fraternal Year (July through June.) Fortunately, there were no Assembly deaths in the 2004-2005 Fraternal Year. Instead of a chalice, we presented Father Guillermo Cordoba with a traveling Mass kit. His mission is to minister to the very large Hispanic Community of the North Atlanta suburbs. This mass kit has already aided him in celebrating Mass at locations other than a church. It was presented at the First Annual Seminarian Recognition Banquet sponsored by our Assembly partner, St. Brigid’s Council 13204 in Alpharetta.

Yuan Canallejo

However, this 2005-2006 Fraternal Year has already seen the deaths of two Sir Knights, Jerome Travers Sr. and Salvatore De Pace. The Chalice Committee contacted the Archdiocesan Vocation Office and was given the name of Seminarian Yuan Canallejo at Mount St. Mary Seminary in Emmetsburg, Maryland as a needy recipient who would greatly appreciate this $400 vessel.

This Philippine native is scheduled to be ordained at the Cathedral of Christ the King on May 27th. The Assembly is struggling to get permission to bring his parents through immigration to attend.

The name of the two Sir Knights will be engraved on the chalice he will be presented. The time and place of the presentation has yet to be determined. Be aware that one of your greatest honors as a Sir Knight would be having your name engraved on a Mass chalice used for life by a new priest. The Greeks believed that a man’s spirit was never dead as long as his name was remembered.
