ALL SAINTS COMPASS

Grand Knight's Report

Brothers,

By now you've heard that our 2009 Lenten Fish Fry broke all records for meals served (6,713 total)

The most amazing thing was that we seem to do it so effortlessly. Maybe after 15 years, we have now become a well-oiled machine. Thanks for making it look so easy. I know it's not.

Our April 25th Fish Fry Workers Appreciation Party served over 120 folks (workers and spouses) that included for the first time the Women's Guild volunteers that served desserts to top off our meals.

Our membership continues its steady rise toward the magic 300 member number. We added five at our 1st degree on March 31st (story inside) and will add still others on May 12th and also June 9th—before the end of fraternal year 2008-2009 on June 30th. As a result, we already had to purchase a dozen new chairs for our McGivney Hall.

Even better, our new insurance field agent, John Knight (story inside) is busy signing up additional insurance members needed to make us a Double Star Council for an amazing third straight year. It gets more difficult every year.

An ever-rising 10% membership increase is required. Georgia is in a neck-to-neck fight with Alberta for the most new members for the year.

Our "Big Onion," John Buchholz, again ordered another 18-wheeler with 2,000 ten-pound bags of Vidalia onions to distribute among seven KofC area councils for our second-biggest annual fundraiser.

As usual, our guys and ladies sold our consignment of 480 bags with no difficulty. Thanks to all the folks that worked the weekend Masses.

This year for the very first time, a regional soap box derby race is being held on our doorstep May 30th. This wonderful national youth event is a natural for the Knights. We are joining in boldly.

We allotted $500 to purchase our first reusable race car and our next newsletter will show some of the fun that the young kids and our very old kids had at this event, that is sure to grow into a major yearly happening like the Dunwoody 4th of July Parade.

Our next important event is the 60th Ordination Anniversary Party for our own chaplain, Monsignor Kiernan on May 2nd. Please make every effort to attend the Saturday 5 PM celebration Mass. We'll have a major presence with altar acolytes and a large honor guard. A grand outdoor party akin to the annual Hoedown will follow. The Council will again man the adult beverage concession.

Wear your badges to the Mass and also to the party afterward. McGivney Hall will be open for public use and this is a wonderful time to recruit new members and publicize our council.

We lost a very wonderful brother last month. Sir Knight Bill Lehman lost his bout with cancer and went to his eternal reward. As a fourth degree brother, his name will now be engraved on a chalice to be presented to a newly-ordained priest — the Order's special gift of perpetual daily Mass remembrance.

It was our privilege to give him a very memorable wake and funeral with 15 honor guards, an acolyte team in full tuxedos, and a rotating team of sentries around his coffin at the viewing. We should all be honored so well.

His widow, Mary Ann, said that the non-Catholics in attendance had never seen anything like it and were "mesmerized." We will miss Bill's always smiling face at the chamber door checking all our membership cards and rosaries.

Every time we lose a Brother, we are well reminded to "remember to live (well) and (yet) remember our mortality"—said succinctly in Latin —

"Memento vivere et memento mori."

What Jesus, Lou Klod

Lenten Fish Fry 2009 Smashes All Records

This picture tells the story. Our Social Hall was filled with diners at every individual event and the meals increased for every event except one over last year's record pace.

We served over 1,000 meals three times this year and came within an eyelash at our last fry. The 554 meal increase over last year represented a 9% increase in any economy where everything else was declining.

We have our work cut out next year to continue these increases.

New Brothers from March 31st Exemplification

Jon Peterson

Tom Hamilton

Matt Allen

Jerry Cicero

On March 31st, McGivney Hall was the scene of the addition of 25 new brothers to the Order. All Saints welcomed 5 (Brother Bill Giles is not pictured here.) St. Brigid welcomed 17, St. Marguerite welcomed 2, and Atlanta 660 welcomed 1 new brother. We are pleased to help other councils expand their memberships at our venue.

Vidalia Onions -- Another 480 Bags Quickly Sold

By John Buchholz, "The Big Onion":

"Thanks to nearly 70 volunteer Knights, several spouses, and teenagers selling at all the Masses the weekend of April 25/26, our Council SOLD OUT of our supply of 480 ten-pound bags of "fresh from the farm" Vidalia Onions. This time we sold the final 30 bags at the 6 PM Mass, most before the Mass had started.

Blessed by great weather, many volunteer Knights and supportive All Saints parishioners, we held another successful Onion sale. All together, our Council coordinated the delivery and sale of 2000 ten-pound bags divided up by 7 Councils. Our council sold the top amount among this group of Councils.

A special THANKS to all our Council members who BOUGHT a bag or two of the onions. We couldn't have SOLD OUT without your assistance. Also, a special ATTABOY to Brother Ed Krise who allows us to use his Courier South warehouse to receive the onions and assist in the redistribute to the participating Councils.

This Big Onion praises the enthusiasm of the selling team and recognizes several "Iron Men" Knights for selling at nearly ALL the Masses - Tom Burleigh, Frank Callan, Wiley Maloof, Sean O'Neil and Dave Webster.

Now, its time to relax and smell the Onions as they cook on the grill or become delicious Onion Soup - until NEXT YEAR!"

Our New Insurance Field Agent is a Knight—No, Really

When Brother John Jedlicka was promoted to General Agent for all of Georgia, he lost no time in finding an excellent backfill for his previous position. He will now be busy setting up the new Jedlicka Agency.

John A. Knight III is an experienced financial advisor and brings a great reputation and loads of energy to his new position. (He must now resign his officer post.) He has already been busy contacting brothers in his area. Besides All Saints, he will oversee the insurance needs of St. Thomas More and St. Peter Chanel Councils.

Only about a fourth of our Council brothers are insurance members. This is surprising, since the Order's annuities are paying 4.5% in a rather depressed economy. Knight funds have lost nearly no value in the recent market slide—great praise indeed for conservative investing strategy.

Many brothers are not aware of the wonderful available "long term care" policies that are so crucial to financial estate planning. You can become an insurance member by purchasing a $100 annuity and adding money at your own pace while receiving very attractive interest rates. The knights were founded to protect families from financial calamity. Talk to John.

An Eagle Scout Teaches Kids About Recycling

Eagle Scout Mike Hayes, a parishioner of All Saints Parish, has instituted a recycling project at All Saints within our pre-school ministry classrooms.

Scout Hayes, shown below, is actually a member of the nearby St. Luke Presbyterian Troop 764, but his family belongs to All Saints.

He conceived of a project to teach young children of the importance of recycling paper, cans, and plastic to help the environment.

Our pre-school director, Hope Long, gave him a good deal of direction and encouragement to complete the project. She also alerted the All Saints Knights that the project was going on and suggested that Mike request some funds to help defray his personal costs of procuring nine recycling bins to be located around our school area.

Since we are not ones to refuse a worthy Eagle Scout project, we immediately voted to extend him a hand with a $250 donation. The parents of the pre-schoolers agreed to take the filled contents of the bins to a recycling center.

Check out the excited faces of the kids. It looks as if the country just produced a healthy batch of ardent recyclers. Our Council was glad to become a part of this endeavor. We can't say "no" to an Eagle Scout. Thanks, Mike.

Archbishop Gregory at All Saints Confirmation

An Archbishop on wheels

Catholic Archbishop Wilton Gregory has a new nickname, "Scooter." After tearing his Achilles' tendon in a racquetball game, he is using the new apparatus to coast around town. He drew appreciative laughter Saturday when he scooted down the church aisle in full vestments at All Saints Catholic Church's confirmation service. Crier photo: Dick Williams

Atlanta Archbishop Wilton Gregory was an awfully good sport and one tough cookie when he wheeled into the All Saints parking lot with a bad right leg.

This picture from the March 25 Dunwoody Crier was worth 1,000 words. He had torn an Achilles tendon playing racquet ball, but that didn't stop him administering the Sacrament of Confirmation to about 80 young adults at the usual time of the scheduled ceremony.

Before the ceremony he was seen engaged with our own Benny Mastrogiovanni conversing in perfect fluent Italian.

He was at his entertaining best asking questions to each of the confirmati at the altar as they came forward to receive their oil and blessing. Each young adult had chosen a saint whose life they would emulate and Archbishop Gregory seemed to be well aware of each saint's life story and quizzed the youngsters about them.

About a dozen members of our Fr. Charles J. Watters Assembly were there in full regalia to add color to the ceremony in the packed church.

We are always honored when the Archbishop comes to our parish, and we always appreciate the respect and honor he always pays to the Knights of Columbus.

Continuing Charitable & Benevolent Efforts

Our council benevolence continued at the April Business Meeting and during the entire month:

- A motion was passed to donate $500 to Monsignor Kieman's burse for his 60th anniversary of ordination.
- A motion was passed to join the local Soap Box Derby with the purchase of a race car kit or $500. The event was viewed as a wonderful youth event that we should sponsor this year and every year in the future.
- Council acolyte teams continued serving parish funerals and other special occasions.
- Several Sir Knights of our council volunteered their time for several Honor Guard events this month.

First Holy Communion –an Honor Guard Specialty

One thousand people jammed the All Saints Church on Saturday, April 25th, to see 105 youngsters receive their First Holy Communion.

It was a joyous affair with parents, grandparents, and all other relatives jockeying to take pictures from every conceivable angle.

The Father Charles J. Watters Assembly was there with an honor guard of 16 men in full regalia—representing St. Brigid, St. Andrew, and All Saints Parishes.

Monsignor Kiemann officiated with assistance from Father McCormick, Archbishop John F. Donoghue, and our own Brother, Deacon Ray Egan.

A reception with the obligatory group photo shot was held after the ceremony in the Social Hall.

Thanks for all the participation by the Assembly Honor Guard. While this ceremony was being held, eight more of our brothers were attending the Fourth Degree Exemplification across town. We hope that they will join the honor guard at some future time also.

Our decision to sponsor a race car in the local Soap Box Derby Race on May 30th has started coalescing.

Race crew chief Joe Fuentes has been assembling the car kit base using the descriptive 50-page manual. The car shell just arrived from the detailers looking mighty sharp. If looks could win, we're on our way to Akron, OH.

At the last All Saints Pack 434 Cub Scout Meeting, an excited Spencer Woolson, 10, had his name picked out of a hat to be our council driver.

Now if we can get our Georgia Tech engineers to grease the wheels, figure out the weight distribution, and then reduce the drag factor, Our new "Red Knight" can win this thing.

We'll be selling hot dogs in our big cooker this year at the race, and we hope to even make some money.

Simpsonwood Retreat on Aug. 22/23

This Fall we return to the wonderful Simpsonwood Retreat Center venue for our annual weekend retreat. The facilities are unmatched and the prices are reasonable. A single room will probably cost $129, while a double will cost $95. Cost includes 5 meals and a snack. The Center is conveniently located in Norcross on Jones Bridge Circle.

This year we have invited the Fr. Charles J. Watters Assembly to join us and have upped the number of rooms to accommodate 40 attendees. We are currently in negotiation for a retreat master and are evaluating various topics of interest to knights. The schedule will be a full day Saturday and half day Sunday. A Saturday night vigil Mass will fulfill the Sunday obligation.

Columbus Day Knights of Columbus Golf Tournament

We've made an executive decision to brand our yearly golf tournament with a name that is a natural for us. Since mid-October is a great time for a tournament, and Columbus Day is held then, we'll do it every year on Columbus Day. That way, nobody will have to wonder when it's being held. This year Columbus Day is celebrated on Monday, October 12th.

The beautiful Horseshoe Bend Country Club will again be the venue. Our cooker will be there as usual, and a silent auction will again follow dinner. Details will be available soon.

LEHMAN, William

WILLIAM G. LEHMAN

William G. Lehman, known as Bill by his friends, age 79 of Dunwoody, Georgia passed away on April 16, 2009. Born the only child of William E. Lehman and Amelia Moyer Lehman in Sandusky Ohio, Bill Attended St. Anthony's Catholic School and served as an altar boy. He attended Xavier University in Cincinnati, Ohio on a ROTC scholarship. Following his graduation with a degree in English, and marriage to Carleen Hebestreit, he served as supply sergeant and a 1st Lieutenant in Seoul, Korea during the Korean War. Bill loved numbers and had a long, successful career as credit manager for Ford Motor Credit Corp. After retiring from Ford, he began his second career with Alltel Supply Co. in the credit department. He was joyful and lucky to find love again following the death of Carleen in 1999. He married his beloved Mary Ann Dellaria in 2002. Bill and Mary Ann traveled with the Benson Senior Group on bus trips across the U.S. and Canada. Bill became a Knight of Columbus at All Saints Catholic Church through which he forged many friendships. Bill and Mary Ann worked tirelessly side by side conducting food pick-ups and deliveries to those in need. Bill treasured reading novels, newspapers and magazines, and was seldom seen without some kind of reading material nearby. His children's fondest memories include his quick visits to drop off a newspaper article or magazine that he though would be of interest, his weekly trips to the library, and the common sight of him in his easy chair surrounded by a litter of three different daily newspapers scattered about him. Bill is survived by his wife Mary Ann Dellaria Lehman; children Pam (Chris) Kuhn of Denver, CO; Patty (Roger) Max of Senoia, GA; Mark (Mindy) Lehman of Norcross, GA; Laura (Rob) Hiller of Norcross, GA; Joseph (Karen) Dellaria of Woodbury, MN; Cheryl Dabney (John Johnston) of Atlanta, GA; Paul (Nancy) Dellaria of Athens, GA; grandchildren: Katherine, Carley, Demi, Joel (Sarah), Rebecca, Joshua, Benjamin, David (Misty), Stephen, Lauren, Matthew and Christopher; great grandchild Ruth and many dear friends. A Funeral Mass will be held at 10:00 A.M., Monday, April 20, 2009 at All Saints Catholic Church, 2443 Mount Vernon Road, Dunwoody, GA 30338. Interment will follow at Arlington Memorial Park. The family will receive friends from 6:00 - 8:00 P.M., Sunday, April 19, 2009 with a Rosary Service to be held at 7:00 P.M. at H.M.
