Grand Knight's Report

Brothers:

October is an amazingly busy month for our council.

It gets started on Thursday night, Oct 4th, with Monsignor Marren's dinner and wine auction to benefit St. Joseph's High School in Ghana. The Monsignor has asked the Knights to act as servers again this year. The Monsignor is seeking 12 Knights attired in white dress shirts and black slacks. The function starts at 6:30 PM, with the Knights arriving at 5:50 PM. Please consider serving.

On Saturday, October 6th, the council will be spread thin as we unload the first truckload of pumpkins for the Pumpkin Patch, and bring our hard hats south of Turner Field for the Knight's Habitat Day. We need as much help as we can get for both of these events. If you haven't been "on the line" handing off pumpkins – you don't know what you're missing! Even if you only have an hour to help, please give it thoughtful consideration. And bring the kids!

Sunday, October 14th is our always popular Oktoberfest at Rivermont Park on the Hooch. Last year we had almost 100 Knights plus their family members enjoy a juicy brat, a cold beverage and award-winning German strudel. And this year the state's top Knight, State Deputy Rick Sisko, will be on hand to present the council with its record sixth straight Double Star Award.

Tuesday evening, October 16th is the Knight's Memorial Mass. It's a solemn ceremony that is well attended, not to mention appreciated, by the families and spouses of deceased Knights. I wish I could get Monsignor to count this Mass towards Sunday obligation!

Finally, Tuesday, October 30th is our next first degree exemplification. Our Chancellor, Frank Callan, expects our numbers to swell. Please think about attending and supporting our new Brothers.

As a member of Norb Braza's Google group, I recently received the following (condensed), penned by two gentleman named Jason Carlson and Ron Carlson.

"During a question and answer session at a recent speaking engagement, a university student asked me, 'Why do you believe that the Bible is the inspired word of God?'"

I said to him, 'If you do not believe that the Bible is the inspired word of God, if you do not believe that the Bible is of a supernatural origin, then I challenge you to a test.'

I said to the student, 'I challenge you to go to any library in the world, you can choose any library you like, and find 66 books which match the characteristics of the 66 books in the Bible. You must choose 66 books, written by 40 different authors, over 1500 years, in 3 different languages, written on 3 different continents. However, they must share a common storyline, a common theme, and a common message, with no historical errors or contradictions.'

I went on to say, 'If you can produce such a collection of books, I will admit that the Bible is not the inspired word of God.' The student's reply was almost instantaneous, he emphatically stated, 'But that's impossible!'"

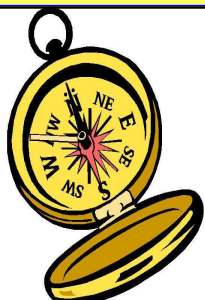

It truly is impossible, for any collection of human writings. However, the Bible passes this test. The Bible contains 66 books, written by 40 different authors, over 1500 years, in 3 different languages, on 3 different continents, with no historical errors or contradictions. The entire Bible, from Genesis to Revelation, bears the mark of Divine inspiration." (Note-- the Catholic Bible contains 73 such books!!)

The next time you encounter someone who asks you why you believe the Bible is the inspired word of God, share this challenge with them. Don't even mention the Bible up front, just ask them if they think it would be realistic to assemble such a collection of books.

Vivat Jesus,
Bob Fiscella

ALL SAINTS COMPASS

New Council Brothers and Promotions

Ralph O'Connor

Karl Koenig

David Sykes

Frank Seco de Lucena

Ralph O'Connor became our new member at the 1st degree ceremony held at Georgia Tech on August 29th. He heads our Parish Lector Ministry. Twelve other young men joined the Tech council that same evening. Our degree team officiated.

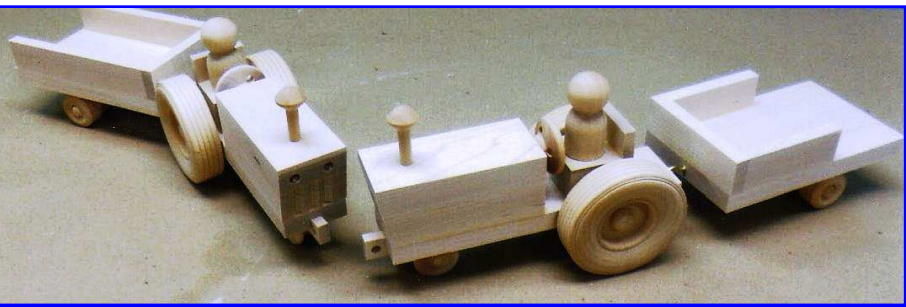

Karl Koenig was a former member of St. Benedict Council. Because he was inactive over seven years, he was reactivated and counted as our new member. He then went through our 2nd degree on Sept. 18th.

David Sykes is a transfer from Council 562 in Roanoke, VA. He is a fourth degree Sir Knight.

Frank Seco de Lucena attended the 3rd degree exemplification at St. Catherine of Siena Council in Kennesaw recently. He is now eligible to become a Sir Knight on November 10th if he chooses.

We welcome these three new brothers to our council, and we warmly congratulate Frank on his promotion.

Council Toy Making Event is October 21st

On Sunday, October 21st, Brother Ken Gregg will again be asking for volunteers to craft a few hundred wooden toys for hospitalized children. The council donated funds for the wooden parts. No skill is needed for assembly.

Contact Ken at kwgregg1@gmail.com or 770-396-4468.

Massive 2nd Degree Ceremony at McGivney

On Tuesday, September 18th, a very large class of 1st degree brothers progressed to the 2nd degree. Of the 29 candidates progressing, 26 were from All Saints and 3 were from St. Thomas Aquinas. State Deputy, Rick Sisko, was the presiding officer at the event. Sisko was the 5th Grand Knight of All Saints Council 11402 and is now a member of St. Brigid Council 13204.

Our new advanced brothers alphabetically are : Peter Anderson, Jordan Banasik, Brian Benninghoff, Michael Patrick Callahan, E.J. Couvillian, Joe DeVita, Conrad Fischer, David Flynn, James Foy, David Grayson, William Herald, Greg Kane, Rich Kernan, Karl Koenig, John Martin, Marty McCormick, Rick McCully, Chris Murtha, John Nelson, Nick O'Kon, Matthew Planer, Bob Rumsey, Bryan St. Romain, Jonathan Tierney, John Wargo, and Ned Winsor.

Our council's 403 members are now divided thus: 100 first degree, 60 second degree, 139 third degree, and 104 fourth degree. The goal is to get everyone into the two higher degrees.

Oktoberfest Set for Sunday October 14th

Georgia State Deputy, Rick Sisko, has agreed to sponsor the All Saints Council to use the private Rivermont Park again this year for our annual Oktoberfest family picnic. The event will be held on Sunday, October 14th from about noon to 5 PM.

Our monster cooker will again be in operation with the council providing beverages, brats, and burgers, while members are being asked to bring their favorite dishes to share with all. Games for adults and kiddies are provided.

Deputy Sisko and wife Kathy will attend and present us with our sixth consecutive council Double Star Award.

Knight Memorial Mass Oct. 16th

Our Annual Deceased Knight Memorial Mass will be held this year at All Saints Church on Wednesday, October 16th, at 7 PM. Currently we believe that Monsignor Marren will celebrate with Fr. Bill Hao con-celebrating. The Petersons will provide the music. This event is always solemn and moving.

This year we will light 37 candles to commemorate our deceased brothers. We would love to have 37 individual knights light one candle each. We lost one brother, Mike Klimshuk, this year.

Please keep this event on your calendar. Invite your spouses and families as well. There will be a reception at McGivney following. An honor guard has also been requested.

Council 11402 Habitat Build Day is October 6th

All Saints Parish is in the process of building its 19th Habitat House. Our council is assigned Saturday the 6th of October as our day to move the project forward. Lunch will be provided by the council.

The contact for this build is:
Mike Will 770-446-7674 or mwill@ramgroup.net.

Donations of water and soda to keep our workers hydrated can be left on the Habitat Food Table in the Social Hall next to the parish office.

Help make our 19th house a reality for a needy family.

Pumpkins are Coming October 6th

To ensure that Monsignor Marren does not have to unload an 18-wheeler full of 1,500 pumpkins alone, we are asking for about 50 volunteers to assist in this fun and challenging task about 10 AM on Saturday Oct. 6th. Our Great Pumpkin, Brother B.L Van Gundy, has a SignUp Genius web site.

Membership Committee Asks for Ongoing Help

Our council membership committee currently consists of two brothers, Frank Callan and Lou Hlad. These two men could certainly use some ongoing help and seek expansion of the committee to include extended recruiting, member retention, second, third, and fourth degree notices, prospect interviewing, and database updating. Now that we have passed 400 members, the job is growing steadily in scope.

If you can help by calling and emailing prospective members and current members to keep them abreast of interviews and upcoming ceremonies at our council and neighboring councils, please give us a call. Much of the work can be done from home. Volunteers should have computer skills in emailing mass messages with attachments and good phone skills for advising candidates of our council's interest in their membership. During certain times of the year, we call members who are behind in their dues as well.

Our present committee usually does a good job in recruiting, but the ongoing publication of events at other councils and progression of our members through the later degrees is a weakness of manpower. All members can help in the submission of new candidate names, but that is only the first step in a long chain of events that lead to degree progression and member retention. We also have many sick brothers that are reported to us, but their later health situations are not followed and reported. Some brothers require mentoring as well.

If you have some spare time and have good people skills, can follow up on developing scenarios, and are comfortable with computers, please think thoughtfully and prayerfully about a job on our membership committee. We need to increase the effectiveness of our outreach communications.

Bill Herald is June Knight of the Month

We finally caught up to Brother Bill Herald (right) at the September council meeting to present him his June Knight-of-the-Month Award. Our Family Life Chair Bruce Malinoff officiated.

He was instrumental in putting together the Fortnight for Freedom Program that was held at Marist High School on June 21st.

About two thousand people attended, the primary speaker was Archbishop Gregory, along with Senator Johnny Isaacson, and U.S. Representative from our district, Tom Price.

Our council brothers were very much in evidence as ushers and parking lot attendants.

Thanks to everyone who took the time to stand up for Catholic religious freedom.

Council 11402 Brother Named Pastor

First Nigerian Priest For Atlanta Named Pastor

By STEPHEN O'KANE Staff Writer

HAPEVILLE—Archbishop Wilton D. Gregory recently named Father Michael Onyekuru as the pastor of St. John the Evangelist Church, Hapeville. In 2000, Father Onyekuru was ordained by the late Archbishop John F. Donoghue as the first Nigerian Catholic priest for the Atlanta Archdiocese.

During his time in the Atlanta Archdiocese, Father Onyekuru served as parochial vicar at Sts. Peter and Paul Church, Decatur; All Saints Church, Dunwoody; the Cathedral of Christ the King, Atlanta; and Good Shepherd Church, Cumming. He has also served at the Metropolitan Tribunal as an auditor, advocate and defender of the bond, beginning in 1999. He has been a judge for over 11 years and has been serving as the adjutant judicial vicar for the past six years. He continues to do part-time ministry for the tribunal as a judge and counselor in addition to his pastoral duties.

A native of Owerri, Nigeria, Father Onyekuru began his training at the St. Peter Claver Minor Seminary in Owerri and attended a communication course in England. He also attended the University of West Indies in Kingston, Jamaica, and the Pontifical Universities of Sts. Thomas Aquinas and John Lateran in Rome, Italy, where he earned licentiate of canon law and doctor of canon law degrees. He also earned a master's degree in clinical psychology from Brenau University, Gainesville.

During his training, Father Onyekuru served parishes in Nigeria, Cameroon, Jamaica, England and Italy. His new appointment at St.

John the Evangelist is his first pastorate.

With education and ministry experiences throughout the world, Father Onyekuru brings a multicultural background to the diverse Catholic population of North Georgia. Father Onyekuru discussed his position as a first-time pastor via email with The Georgia Bulletin.

GB: What does being a pastor mean to you?

Father Onyekuru: When I reflect on the word "pastor," what comes to mind is the daily role of an ordinary shepherd. A shepherd is one who is responsible to care for the flock, every member of the flock, the sheep and lambs. He ensures that they are led to good pastures, are nourished daily, cleansed when soiled, cared for when hurting and sick, guided when they need direction, encouraged on the journey, taught how to stay together, admonished when necessary, protected, comforted when dying and buried at the end of their earthly existence. For me, my service as a pastor is like that of a shepherd. It is a great privilege with serious responsibilities. It is a privilege because I believe that the Lord has chosen me at this particular time, to serve a small number of his flock in St. John the Evangelist Parish, which is a special part of the Lord's vineyard.

— Father Michael Onyekuru

I am pastor, I am a priest. The priesthood in our Catholic tradition is a special gift from God, through which we participate in the priesthood of Jesus Christ, the high priest. I feel privileged to share in the priesthood of Christ and to be able to celebrate the sacraments with his people. Of paramount importance is my duty as a pastor, to feed the flock with the Eucharist, the experience of heaven on earth. ...

I count on the Lord to teach and help me to become a pastor, a priest, after his own heart.

GB: What is the most exciting thing about being a pastor?

Father Onyekuru: The most exciting at this time is the realization that Christ has entrusted his flock, my parishioners, to me, to look after them for Christ and bring them closer to him. Along with that is the newness of the experience and the encounter with different groups of parishioners, getting to know them, listening to their sharing and witnessing their zeal to build Church together.

GB: What is the most challenging thing about being a pastor?

Father Onyekuru: What I find most challenging is that most of my parishioners live in communities that are distant from the parish church. It makes home visitation and the formation of a close-knit parish community a bit more demanding. Management and administration issues also pose a challenge sometimes.

Reprint from the Georgia Bulletin dated 9/13/2012

GB: When did you first discern a vocation to the priesthood?

Father Onyekuru: I first thought of the priesthood at a very young age. I was an altar server, serving at Masses in my parish regularly with the Holy Ghost Fathers. I was impressed by their way of life and wanted to be like them.

They spoke to me about the priesthood, and I felt the call to follow Christ that way. I later attended the Minor Seminary where I had the opportunity to participate in a number of spiritual activities, which included daily prayer and reflection, daily spiritual reading, discernment retreat, monthly recollection and spiritual direction.

My family also played an important part in my call. I come from a very Catholic family in which I witnessed my uncle, cousins, and two brothers' response to the Lord's call to the priesthood. I was inspired by their love for God and service of others. All I desired was to do the same.

We wish our brother well in his new assignment in Hapeville.

He has served for a time at All Saints and has lived in the old rectory.

We will keep him in our prayers.

Fathers for Good

Scripture Study and Discussion Group

Men with children of ALL ages are encouraged to attend

“Fathers for Good” is An Initiative for Men by the Knights of Columbus, International.

The All Saints Catholic Church Men with Young Children Scripture Study Group is a gathering of men with young children who get together to discuss the scripture in reference to their lives and in the light of their Catholic faith, and to share their faith and experiences through friendship, prayer, and fraternity. Members strive to be the spiritual leaders in their marriage and family and follow Jesus Christ by reinforcing Christian values in their home, and community, and working to ensure that their relationship with God, their wife, and their Children are in order. Men do not need to be a Knight to participate.

Strong Fathers, Strong Daughters: 10 secrets every father should know

“The author of this book, Meg Meeker, has the data and clinical experience to prove it. After more than twenty years of counseling girls, she knows that fathers, more than anyone else, set the course for their daughters’ lives. Directly challenging the feminist attack on traditional masculinity, Dr. Meeker demonstrates that the most important factor for girls growing up into confident, well-adjusted women is a strong father with conservative values. To have one, she shows, is the best protection against eating disorders, failure in school, STDs, unwed pregnancy, and drug or alcohol abuse - and the best predictor of academic achievement, successful marriage, and satisfying emotional life.”

Fathers are welcome to attend any or all of the sessions listed below.

Date	Chapter	Discussion Topics
Sunday, Sept 16	1 and 2	You Are the Most Important Man in Her Life; She Needs a Hero
Sunday, Sept 30	3 and 4	You Are Her First Love; Teach Her Humility
Sunday, Oct 14	5 and 6	Protect her - use a shot gun if necessary; Pragmatism and Grit: Two of your greatest assets
Sunday, Oct 28	7 and 8	Be the man you want her to marry; Teach her who God is
Sunday, Nov 11	9 and 10	Teach her to fight; Keep her connected
Sunday, Nov 25	Book #2	Discuss Experience with Strong Fathers, Strong Daughters - 30 day Challenge

All sessions will be held in McGivney Hall 7:00 am – 8:30 am

Men with children of ALL ages are encouraged to attend – No experience necessary.

Participants are asked to purchase 2 books from vendor of choice prior to first session.

“Knight to Knight” Corner

Our council insurance field agent, John Knight, has put together some great tips to consider monthly on the importance of proper insurance coverage.

Following is his October insurance topic to ponder. KofC insurance is sold only to brothers and their families at great rates.

Today's up to you. I'll help with the future!

October Insurance Tip --- Still Have Just Group Insurance?

As a Knights of Columbus field agent, I hear about group life insurance every week. If you have it, it's certainly not a bad thing, but it can be a misleading security blanket. Most times, the amount offered is far from what you need, and the only way to determine what you need is with a comprehensive needs analysis.

Your group coverage is not based on any analysis. Instead, they apply a formula: you make X amount in salary and the group life is either a flat amount ($15,000 seems popular) or a multiple of your salary (somewhere between 1.5 and 2.5 is common). Either way, it has nothing to do with the number of children you have, the mortgage balance you carry, or the amount of money your wife would need if you die. It's a completely random number.

It can also disappear at any time. All of us know people — friends, family members, neighbors — who have lost their jobs. When the job is lost, so is the group life insurance coverage. If the company experiences difficulty and budgets need to be cut, group life can be reduced or eliminated. And that decision could be made at the worst possible time for you.

Most group life insurance coverage reduces or disappears when you retire. Many times it can be converted, but at a very expensive premium (remember, you're no kid anymore when you retire, and premiums do rise as you get older). Just because you turn 65 doesn't mean you no longer need life insurance or need less coverage. Actually, the opposite is true.

Do you still own just group life insurance? It must be supplemented with a personally-owned portfolio. I can tell you exactly how to blend your group benefit with your K of C life insurance, so things can be in your control. Don't let the feeling of security that group life provides distract you from the real issue: taking control of your family's financial future!

Annual Cookout at Emory Catholic Center

Every year our council hosts the annual Welcome Back to School cookout and Mass at Emory University Catholic Center. The new chaplain at that center is Father Diosmar Natad, 45, from the Philippines. He does double duty as the chaplain of Agnes Scott College as well.

You will recognize our monster cooker as the star of the event that featured seven brothers cooking and serving the food for the returning Catholic students. Doc Malone, Stan Wasowski, Dean Trantow, Jerry Churchill, Greg Crnkovich, Shane Patilla, and Lou Hlad did the honors. The Grand Knight and Deputy Grand Knight of the Georgia Tech Council also dropped by to recruit some of the students into the KofC.

It is hoped that some day there will be new councils at Emory and Georgia State. An alternative would be a combined council among those two schools and Georgia Tech.

“Know Your Knights” Weekend Oct. 5th/6th

Last month the council instituted a policy of asking all brothers to wear their council badges one weekend a month at the Mass they attend to stress an awareness among the parishioners of the council's presence and importance. With over 400 members, it is difficult at any parish Mass to look around and not see dozens of brothers in the congregation. At some Masses, the entire usher crew are brothers.

The Badge Sunday (and Saturday night vigil Mass) in question will always be the weekend immediately following our monthly business meeting which is the first Tuesday of the month. You will be reminded at each business meeting to wear your badge the following weekend.

Wear your council badge proudly, so that all parishioners “Know Their Knights” and men are thus encouraged to join the Order. Since you paid $10 for your membership badge, don't let it gather dust in your dresser. Please display it proudly every month!!

KNIGHT OF THE MONTH

This certificate is awarded to

PATRICK FAHEY

In grateful recognition of his service to the Council and Parish through his many hours of hard work and dedication in serving as our Worthy Warden. He has brought our facility into a level of cleanliness and organization not seen before. Every item we own is in its proper place and labeled. Our shelves are stocked, our hunger is satisfied, and our hearts are grateful.

Our September Knight-of-the-Month was an easy pick in Pat Fahey, our latest Worthy Warden.

He cleaned up our Hall like it had never been done before. (In other words, he threw a lot of junk out.)

He also has been making sure that we have extra food treats for most of our gatherings.

Just about every shelf and drawer in the place is properly labeled with its intended contents now.

Thank goodness for neatniks.

Council Benevolence/Charity/Service

Council voted $300 to Ken Gregg's project for wooden pieces to make 200 toys for children in hospital with cancer.

Council voted $250 for Paul Weidle's gift to Lighthouse Family Retreat, another group aiding children with cancer.

Jerry Churchill made a motion to donate $2,000 to our Benin missionary, Gray Plunkett. Because it was over $500, the vote is tabled to be voted in October.

Doc Malone raised a motion to donate $1,000 to Friends of Disable Adults and Children (FODAC) to assemble wheel-chairs for the disabled. Must be voted in October.

Preparations for the fourth years of "Fathers for Good" seminars are well under way.

Council acolytes served several funeral Masses again this month.

Council sponsored the Emory University "Welcome Back" student cookout at the Emory Catholic Center.

Council provided "Dunwoody Cleanup" volunteers to clean North Peachtree and Georgetown I-285 intersections.

Where is Brother Romy Myszka Now?

Former 11402 brother and living legend Romy Myszka is alive and well in Antioch, California.

He recently became a police officer on the Antioch Sheriff Department staff and is a current member of the Antioch KofC Council 3265.

Policing seems a natural new job for the ex-marine, although some of the antics he pulled while here may have been a bit borderline. It seems strange that he is now giving out citations.

We wish this wonderful old friend the best in his new life in the sunshine state.

Reduction in Council Initiation Fee

All Saints Council has over the years had among the highest initiation fee of most councils. We charge new brothers an initiation fee of $25, annual dues of $40, and a charge of $10 for making an individual custom badge. This adds up to a maximum charge of $75 for a candidate entering at the start of a calendar year.

Our annual $40 membership dues are pro-rated downward throughout the year, but the initiation fee of $25 has been constant, as has the cost for engraving a new badge. Some councils, like St. Brigid, charge no initiation fee.

The original reasoning behind the $25 initiation fee was the cost of rosary, pin, and booklet given out to new members, the $8.50 per-capita annual member fee charged by Supreme, and the future potential cost of a meal reimbursement when the new member became a 3rd degree brother at that ceremony. These fees have always been displayed in our by-laws.

We intend to revise our by-laws to reduce the $25 initiation fee to $10 in the future to lessen any perceived "sticker shock" to joining the All Saints Council and bring our fees in line with most other councils. Such a change will be voted at the October meeting.
