Grand Knight's Report

Brothers:

It will be "all hands on deck" for Council 11402 in October. It gets started this Friday afternoon/evening with the unloading of the first truckload of pumpkins for our 3rd Annual Pumpkin Patch.

Our Big Pumpkins, BJ Van Gundy and Bruce Malinoff, have made this a fun event in the past, and it should be even better this year with the time and date change from Saturday morning to Friday afternoon. We're exchanging coffee and donuts for pizza and beer (and wine too)!

Hopefully you're available to lend a hand – family and friends are welcome. The unloading is truly a case of "the more the merrier." If you have not already signed up, copy and paste the following link www.signupgenius.com/go/20F0E4EAE822A57-pumpkin/4122676

Sunday, October 13th marks our annual family Oktoberfest at Rivermont Park – always our most popular event in which to share a brat, beer and strudel with brother Knights and their families. If you haven't been in the past, I highly encourage you to come for an hour or two (the Falcons have a bye that Sunday). I guarantee a fun time.

Wednesday, October 16th is the annual Knights' Mass of Remembrance, as we light one candle for each deceased Brother of Council 11402 at the 7pm celebration that evening. No one appreciates this Mass more than the widows and families of our deceased Brothers. A short reception will follow in McGivney.

On October 18-19 the parish will hold its first Fall Festival and the Knights are heavily involved. We will be serving a BBQ dinner on Friday night, and then hot dogs and burgers on Saturday from 10AM-3PM. We've also been asked to handle beverages as well as some cleanup responsibilities. Hopefully you'll be available on one or both days to lend a helping hand.

As the old saying goes, "God works in mysterious ways." It is indeed a mystery how a visiting priest from Ghana, whose English, at times, is exceedingly difficult to understand, could make such a profound impact on our council, and our parish as a whole. But Father Anthony did just that!

Fr. Anthony Eshun brought an infectious enthusiasm to the campus that has not been seen in these parts in a long time. His abundance of energy helped draw our church community together in a very profound way. His smile – and singing – was a welcomed sight – and sound – at Mass, even if I did feel like I was at a Southern Baptist revival!

Fr. Anthony returned to Ghana on Monday, September 30th and will be missed greatly. Please keep him in your prayers.

Finally, if you get the opportunity, click on these two links below to read some very poignant remarks from Pope Francis as he tries to get the Catholic Church back to the basics.

The first is an article summarizing a recent interview with the Pope. www.huffingtonpost.com/2013/09/19/pope-francis-gay_n_3954776.html

The second is the actual interview: www.americanmagazine.org/pope-interview.

I can't help contain my enthusiasm for the new Pope. He "gets it." He sees the big picture, and I believe will help return wayward Catholics back to the church. Please keep the Pope in your daily prayers.

Our Newest Council Members

On Tuesday, September 24th, we held a 1st degree ceremony in McGivney Hall and welcomed 11 new brothers. Two of the new members are legacies with a relative in our Council. Seven other candidates were read in and voted on for their prospective membership in October.

Kevin Cahn is the son of new member David Cahn. Jon Myers is the grandson of Sir Knight Don Myers.

The top three people went through the September 24th ceremony with those of the previous page.

Nathan Bork and Woody Jones were reapplication previous members and did not have to go through the ceremony and did not attend, but entered our council.

Bernie Sotola entered our council previously via reapplication from Holy Family Council in Marietta. We finally have a picture. He is the All Saints choir director.

New Third Degree Promotions

These newly-minted 3rd degree brothers have chosen to progress to the 4th degree at the Sonesta Hotel at Gwinnett Place Mall on November 2nd. They will be joined by Brother Clifford Okerulu who is a previous 3rd degree knight. We congratulate these four brothers.

Fr. Anthony Eshun

On Sunday, September 29th, our Fr. Charles J. Watters Assembly of Sir Knights presented Father Anthony with a travelling Mass kit to take back to Ghana, Africa with him. Sir Knight Ernie Spencer (left) did the honors at a full house to the delight of our Parishioners.

The chalice inside is engraved with the names of Mike Klimshuk and Edward Pavlik, two deceased Sir Knights who were founding members of the parish, our All Saints Council, and our Fr. Charles J. Watters Assembly. An impressive honor guard of 17 Sir Knights was on hand to commemorate the event and say a final farewell and “amen” to Fr. Anthony. He wishes to become a 4th degree member upon his return to Atlanta. He will need the permission of the Master of the Fourth Degree, since he is not an American citizen and that degree features American patriotism.

Brother Chris Carr Selected by Governor Deal

Our 1st degree brother, Chris Carr has been the personal aide of Senator Johnny Isakson for five years.

Georgia Governor Deal has selected him to be the new head of the State Department of Economic Development, which is tasked with convincing companies to relocate to Georgia. He will join that branch in November.

He is a Dunwoody native and has been a member of our parish from his earliest days when he played youth basketball in our gymnasium. His wife Mary and he were married in 2004.

This complimentary article was featured in a recent AJC. We also compliment our brother on his success.

CORPORATE RECRUITMENT

Isakson aide gets top economic job

Senator's chief of staff will be head of state's development efforts.

By J. Scott Trubey
strubey@ajc.com

The art of negotiation is a daily exercise in the halls of the U.S. Capitol. Now, Chris Carr will get to test his skills representing Georgia in corporate boardrooms around the world.

Carr, 41, the chief of staff for U.S. Sen. Johnny Isakson, R-Ga., was named Thursday as the new head of the state Department of Economic Development, which is tasked with helping Georgia companies grow and convincing businesses to locate here.

The Marist graduate succeeds his friend and former high school classmate Chris Cummiskey, who had served as commissioner since January 2011 and during one of the most productive runs in the agency's history in terms of corporate recruitment. Cummiskey will step down next month and join a subsidiary of the Southern Co. in an executive role.

"Chris Carr is respected throughout the state and has built a deep reservoir of goodwill," Gov. Nathan Deal said in a news release.

Carr is expected to join the department in November. He's served as Isakson's lead staffer for the last five years and previously served as deputy chief of staff. He formerly was an attorney at Atlanta law firm Alston & Bird.

Carr said Deal has tasked him with maintaining momentum in corporate recruitment, job creation and helping promote and ensure Georgia's business-friendly environment.

The Dunwoody native is familiar with Georgia's 159 counties and its diverse economy, having run Isakson's 2004 Senate campaign, said Heath Garrett, an Atlanta political strategist and a former Isakson chief of staff who hired and worked with Carr and Cummiskey.

"(Carr's) affability combined with his intelligence will make him a great salesman for the state of Georgia," Garrett said.

Carr and Cummiskey have traced similar personal and career arcs. In addition to Marist, both went to the University of Georgia, served on Isakson's staff, and Carr was in Cummiskey's wedding.

Cummiskey credited his team and Deal with refocusing on workforce education and recruitment efforts that helped score thousands of jobs in his tenure, including headline-grabbing deals like a Caterpillar manufacturing plant in Athens, the Baxter International bioscience facility near Social Circle and the headquarters of homebuilding giant PulteGroup that is coming to Atlanta.

Sir Knights Open Special Olympics

Members of the Fr. Charles J. Watters Assembly headquartered at McGivney Hall opened the 2013 Special Olympics Fall Softball League at East Roswell Park on September 27th under the command of our Bob Mitchell. Sir Knights from All Saints, St. Brigid, St. Andrew, and Mary Our Queen councils again participated in the annual event. Councils each donated $250 to the funding of the league operations.

The Assembly posts the colors in a flamboyant fashion every year to the delight of the youngsters and parents, many of whom have never seen a knight honor guard and color corps ceremony. The brothers always enjoy this event because of the excitement and appreciation shown by the special olympians.

Oktoberfest Set for Sunday October 13th

Oktoberfest

Past Georgia State Deputy and our Past Grand Knight, Rick Sisko, has agreed to sponsor the All Saints Council to again use the private Rivermont Park this year for our annual Oktoberfest family picnic. The event will be held on Sunday, October 13th from about noon to 5 PM.

Our monster cooker will again be in operation with the council providing beverages, brats, and burgers, while members are being asked to bring their favorite dishes to share with all. Games for adults and kiddies are provided.

Deputy Sisko and wife Kathy will attend and present Stan Wasowski with a Star District Deputy Award. Picnic details and maps will follow in separate emails.

Knight Memorial Mass Oct. 16th

Our Annual Deceased Knight Memorial Mass will be held this year at All Saints Church on Wednesday, October 16th, at 7 PM. Currently we believe that Monsignor Marren will celebrate with other Knight clergy con-celebrating. The Petersons will provide the music. This event is always solemn and moving.

This year we will light 43 candles to commemorate our deceased council brothers. We have already lost 6 council brothers this year. We year for the first time we will add 6 additional candles for our deceased Watters Assembly Sir Knight brothers of other councils.

Please keep this event on your calendar. Invite your spouses and families as well. There will be a reception at McGivney following. An honor guard has also been requested.

Council Supports Parish Fall Festival

Your Knights Council will again be conspicuous by its presence during the Parish Family Fall Festival. Brothers will be setting up the facilities, tearing them down, cooking food, serving beverages, showing movies, directing traffic, managing events, and participating in the chili cook-off in a big way. Below is the article from our church bulletin explaining the many events on the 18th and 19th.

If you can help with set-up and clean-up, please contact Bob Mitchell at bobmitchellga@yahoo.com or 770-804-8060. If you wish to enter the chili cook-off, please contact Greg Crnkovich at greg_c@bellsouth.net or 678-234-1133.

First Annual Fall Family Festival

FRIDAY NIGHT OCTOBER 18:

Friday night's BBQ dinner featuring pulled pork, cole slaw, potato salad, texas toast, lemonade and tea, will be held in the social hall. That means limited seating. Tickets will be sold in advance only and there will be only 200 tickets per seating. Seatings are 4:45 and 6:00. There will be a smores station outside the social hall on the playground side for the kids. The family movie will be shown in the social hall immediately following the 6:00 pm. seating. Parents, bring whatever keeps the kids comfy and enjoy the show. Dinner tickets will be available after masses on Sat. September 28 & 29. Purchases can be made by cash, check or credit card. Adults $6, Seniors $5 and Children $2 (mac 'n cheese & hotdogs). For more information, contact: marytrantow@gmail.com

SATURDAY OCTOBER 19:

Remember to sign up for the <10 kids' FUN RUN. Just go to the website and click on Fun Run. For more information, contact klerbry@gmail.com

Parking: We are anticipating a great turnout as we have so many fun things planned for everyone. The lower parking lot will be occupied by the festival so there will be overflow parking at the old Ace across the street. Please be extra cautious will driving the campus as there will be pedestrians moving about everywhere!!!

Just a quick overview of the day: Fun Run, Arts & crafts exhibits, balloon launch, chili-cookoff, music, face painting, cake walk, bingo, brats & beer, football, sumo wrestling – too much to go into here so check out the website for details www.allsaints.us and click on Fall Family Festival. Be there or be square!

ATTENTION VOLUNTEERS!!!

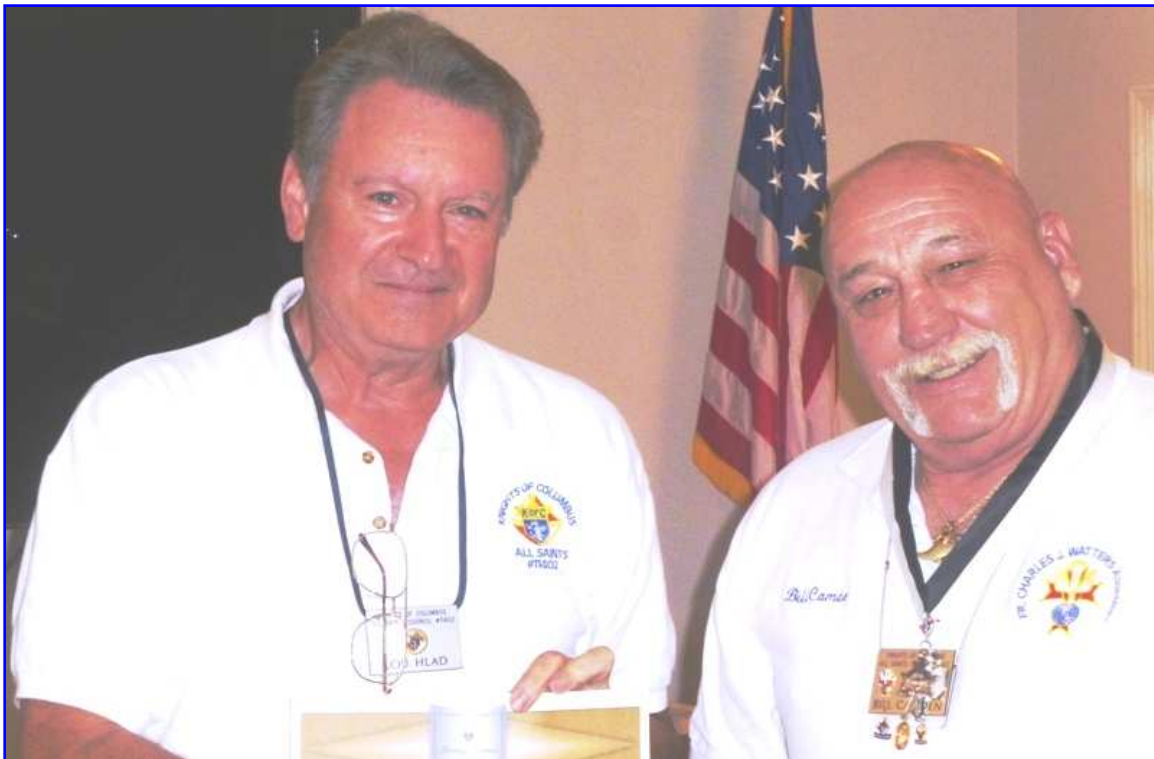

Have you ever wanted to direct traffic? You know tell people where to go... we mean give directionsJ Here's your opportunity. We will need some "traffic ambassadors" to keep people safe during Saturday's festival. We want everyone to enjoy themselves so we are only asking for a 1-hour shift. If you can help, please contact marytrantow@gmail.com or klerbry@gmail.com . This is but one volunteer opportunity available for that day. Please visit the website today and sign up to work in an area of your choice for this fun-packed event. Many hands make light work!

Kane and Seco de Lucena Both Wed 50 Years

Brothers Joe Kane (left) and Frank Seco de Lucena (right) both celebrated their 50th wedding anniversaries in August. Lou Hlad presented their certificates at the August meeting. Kane is married to Judith and Seco de Lucena to Alice. Both couples will be part of the ten couple council contingent invited to Archbishop Gregory's reception October 5th at St. Brigid.

Hlad Finally Qualifies for Shining Armor Award

Sir Knight Lou Hlad (left) is awarded his Shining Armor Award certificate and pin from Chancellor Sir Knight Bill Camden. Hlad has handed out dozens of these awards, and now himself qualified since Supreme dropped the stipulation that it had to be earned in the first year of membership only. Now the five criteria must be fulfilled in any single calendar year. Lou is a Past Grand Knight of All Saints Council.

Gonzales Merits Shining Armor Award

Sir Knight Jim Gonzales (left) is yet another winner of the Shining Honor Award after completing the five requirements in one year. Jim is a relatively new brother and has progressed very quickly in the Order. Our Worthy Chancellor, Bill Camden, awarded him the certificate and pin at the September meeting.

Brother Deacon Melvin's CharityMobi.org Web Site

Our Council Brother, Deacon Ken Melvin, and wife Linda host a charity web site called CharityMobi.org dedicated to aiding child victims of Hurricane Sandy, as well as poverty-stricken children in Grenada and Tanzania. He is at kmelvin@comcast.net and is assigned to Corpus Christi Parish in Stone Mountain, GA.

The focus of the effort is to raise charitable funds via the internet to aid children affected by Hurricane Sandy in New Jersey, as well as to provide medical MobiEHR health cards for use in the poverty areas of the island of Grenada and the Republic of Tanzania in Southeast Africa. The cards contain digital health records of program children.

Working with the World Health Organization and the National Medical Research Institute of Tanzania, the digital cards monitor the progress of children's medications for Malaria, TB, and HIV. When a child takes a pill with a Proteus I-Med monitoring device inside the pill, a signal is sent to a mobile telephone saying that the child has taken the pill. CharityMobi seeks donors/sponsors to pay for the program for relief aid, mobile devices, and the i-Proteus ingestible monitoring system.

On the island of Grenada, West Indies, the process is very similar with CharityMobi working with the Health Ministry of Grenada and Catholic orphanages. CharityMobi is looking for corporate sponsors to provide support to expand the program. The web site allows credit card donations to separate funds for Hurricane Sandy, Grenada, or Tanzania.

If this entire charity story were not wild enough, the web site is holding a raffle with a grand prize of a Mercedes AMG sports car valued at $225,000 plus three other perks. Only 1,000 tickets will be sold for $995 each. The winner gets:

- $225,000 certificate credited to purchase of a Custom AMG auto (includes ticket to AMG Driving School)
- $82,500 certificate to pay all Federal Gambling Taxes
- $15,000 certificate towards payment of TAVT, sales tax, title and registration
- $10,000 certificate to cover a 4-day trip to Germany to watch the auto being built and take delivery. Includes airfare, factory tour, road book, AMG hosted meals, VIP package, winner's evening event, and hotel accommodations in a 4-star hotel near the factory in Affalterbach Germany by Nurburgring.

It should be noted that this charitable initiative was not a product of our council Charity Review Committee.

“Knight to Knight” Corner

Our council Insurance Field Agent, Sir Knight John Knight, has put together some great tips to consider monthly on the importance of proper insurance coverage.

Following is this month's insurance topic to ponder. KofC insurance is sold only to brothers and their families at great rates.

Today's up to you.
I'll help with the future.

October Tip --- “We Stand Strong on Ethical Ground”

Some people believe that ethics in business is a contradiction in terms. They think that in order to be profitable, a company and its leaders must abandon morality and embrace the dark, greedy side of capitalism.

At the Knights of Columbus, we know this business model is incorrect. As a Catholic organization, we understand the value and importance of our core beliefs and the original mission of Venerable Father Michael J. McGivney. In fact, much of the strength and financial security we provide to members and their families can be attributed to our ethical, moral standards.

More than 96 percent of Knights who buy our life insurance keep it, year in and year out. The Order takes this commitment to our members very highly. This means carefully planning when it comes time to invest. Our professional staff researches all transactions to insure that they fall in line with Catholic values. If a transaction makes them uncomfortable, they don't make it.

“We exclude any company engaged in activity that conflicts with Catholic moral teaching: companies directly involved in abortion, contraception, human cloning, embryonic stem cell research, for-profit health care that pays for any of these, or pornography,” said the Supreme Knight. “There are many companies in the pharmaceutical and communications industries that would undoubtedly provide excellent returns for us, but which are not in our portfolio because they engage in research and development or programming in ways that violate the sanctity or dignity of human life.”

In the end, the Knights of Columbus investment strategy is motivated by morality and not money-making. Yet, each year we remain profitable, increase our assets and stay dedicated to this vision that will keep the Order sound financially for generations to come.

“Faithful Catholics have choices when buying life insurance,” said the Supreme Knight. “But they know that at the Knights of Columbus their policy is supplied by an insurer that shares their moral and ethical values and is guided in all of its investment and sales practices by those values.”

Council Sponsors Altar Server Outing

For the past three years the Knight's of Columbus have organized a trip to White Water to show our appreciation and to recognize the Altar Servers. However, if you have not been to the 8:45 AM service in a while (also called the Young People's Mass (YPM)), you may have noticed the children are involved in many aspects of the Mass. It is amazing to see the courage of the young lecturers reading aloud on a microphone the first and second readings (who wouldn't be anxious). Witnessing the little ones directing families to their seats under the watchful eye of Sir Knight Andy Diaz (now that is scary and not for the faint of heart). For these are some of the many other reasons why the Knights extended the invitation to these brave YPM souls.

This year we had nearly seventy Altar Servers, YPM servers, parents and members of Knights of Columbus attend our appreciation outing. If you enjoy smiles and laughter there was no shortage at this Knight's outing.

The Altar Servers are actively updating the requirements and incorporating more structure to the program. New servers and veteran servers used the outing as an opportunity come together and build on their friendships.

After meeting in front of the Knight's Hall and listening to an awesome blessing by Monsignor Marren, everybody put on their bathing suits and sunscreen, packed up their cars and headed to White Water. We rented a covered pavilion just in front of the wave pool and this served as our storage and meeting location.

The kids spent the afternoon enjoying the exciting rides. It is amazing when you mix water, fun and sun that children become very hungry. We also rented a picnic pavilion where our hungry servers, YPMer's and parents enjoyed all you can eat food and drink at the park provided by White Water....yes, this also included all you can eat ice cream, too.

The kids then spent the rest of the afternoon enjoying more fun in the sun with exciting rides at White Water and the fellowship of their fellow altar servers. Prayer, food, fun, games and getting wet - what a combination!

Event was a huge success because of the support of volunteers Jeff Durthaler, Scott Cohen, and Tracey Jennings.

Parish Recruiting Drive is Huge Success

Our new Chancellor, Bill Camden, arranged a parish-wide recruiting drive on the weekend of Sept. 7/8.

Teams of brothers manned the Church doors and asked leaving parishioners to consider joining the council. He prepared flags, posters, brochures, church bulletin inserts, emails, and pulpit announcements.

The fruits of this effort are already apparent with about a dozen new brothers joined and another dozen signed and waiting.

Our past Chancellor, Frank Callan, was so impressed with Bill's effort that he will duplicate the drive at St. Catherine of Siena Council in Kennesaw.

We are blessed to have this energy exhibited by our new Chancellor.

Memento Mori

Sir Knight Bennie Mastrogiovanni lost his younger brother, Pompeo Rosario "Tony" Mastrogiovanni, 62, on September 21, 2013 in a tragic accident. Tony was removing an old tree stump with a bobcat tractor when a hive of yellow jackets in the stump vigorously attacked him. He did not know he was badly allergic to bee stings. Even a quick trip to a nearby hospital could not save him. The funeral Mass was held at Prince of Peace Parish in Flowery Branch, GA and the visitation and Mass was attended by numerous brothers and their wives. Please pray for the family left behind.

Brother Ralph O'Connor's mother, Beryl, 93, passed last month.
