Grand Knight's Report

Brothers:

A few weeks ago, I was doing some reading on the Knights of Columbus website. One of the charges from Supreme reads, "Make your voice heard in your community."

I believe Council 11402 has done a fabulous job of making its voice heard over the last few years. Of course our Fish Frys are the staple of our community service. I believe we've reached the point where we serve more meals to non-parishioners than parishioners! And when it comes to serving food in Dunwoody, we are now "the go-to-guys."

In early August, I was contacted by Alan Mothner, Executive Director of the Dunwoody Nature Center. Alan said to me, "Bob, I'm in a little bind. Our big fundraiser, the Butterfly Festival, is in a couple of weeks, and we need to grill and serve about 700 hot dogs. Will the Knights help us out?"

My response to Alan was "700 hot dogs – piece of cake!" And it was a piece of cake thanks to the generosity and dedication of the brothers of our council, and their selflessness to serve; brothers who are always willing to give of their time and talents.

I sent out a simple email asking for help, and within 24 hours I had 20 volunteers. The Butterfly Festival was a smashing success in no small part to the Knights. Greg Kane, Doc Malone, John Buchholz and our newest Knight James Foy, to name a few, thank you so much. You are why I am so proud to be a Knight.

Our next chance to serve in our unofficial capacity of "community chefs" comes on Wednesday evening, September 5 when we grill for the Catholic community at Emory University. Please see Deputy Grand Knight Dean Trantow if you are interested in volunteering.

Then, on Sunday afternoon, September 30th, we have been asked by the Dunwoody Preservation Trust to provide food and drink for its "Preservation Celebration", a project spearheaded by brother Knight Sam Portis to restore Donald Bannister Farm on Chamblee Dunwoody Rd.

For those of you that always volunteer – I ask you please to volunteer again. For those of you who haven't had the opportunity to volunteer, please consider joining us. Many hands ease the burden, and with our group the old saying rings true, "the more the merrier."

While we are the go-to-guys on the grill, Council 11402 is also the go-to-guys when it comes to first degree exemplifications. On Wednesday evening, August 29, our award-winning first degree ceremonial team packed its bags – and Rosaries – for the Catholic Center at Georgia Tech, and welcomed 13 new members. It was a wonderful night as youth was served. As a matter of fact, rumor has it that the Catholic Center at the University of Georgia is asking our team to make the trek to Athens!

I began this month's report with something I found on the Knights' website, and will end it the same way. Did you know many famous Catholic men from all over the world have been or are Knights of Columbus?

In the United States, the most notable include John F. Kennedy, Ted Kennedy, Al Smith, Alan Keyes, Sargent Shriver, Samuel Alito, an associate justice of the U.S. Supreme Court, Jeb Bush, former Governor of Florida, and Sergeant Major Daniel Daly, a two-time Medal of Honor recipient, once described by the commandant of the U.S. Marine Corps as "the most outstanding Marine of all time."

In the world of sports, Vince Lombardi, the famed coach of the Green Bay Packers; Lou Albano, wrestler; James Connolly, the first Olympic gold-medal champion in modern times, Floyd Patterson, former heavyweight boxing champion, and baseball star Babe Ruth were Knights.

Our Newest Council Brothers on July 31st

Pete Anderson

On July 31st, 2012, we held a first degree exemplification in McGivney Hall in which six new candidates became first degree brothers of 11402. One additional new brother was also exemplified for the St. Thomas Aquinas Council.

We also had the pleasure to read in a transfer document for James Connell, a second degree brother who requested a transfer into All Saints from the St. Andrew Council. He was not able to attend St. Andrew meetings on Mondays because of other commitments and he is a friend of our Sir Knight Mark Foster.

Jonathon Tierney is the grandson of our Sir Knight Andy Diaz and will be attending Georgia Tech this fall. He is 19.

Callan is State Star Recruiter of Year

Sir Knight Frank Callan was presented with the 2011-2012 fraternal year Star Recruiter Award given out by the Georgia State Council. Our District Deputy Stan Wasowski (left) is shown presenting the award to Callan at the August business meeting. The honor was a complete surprise to Frank.

Frank has been instrumental in orchestrating the six consecutive Double Star Awards that grace our back wall. Now he has a serious gold star to grace his own home. He recruited 22 new members last year alone.

All Saints Honors Msgr. Donovan

All Saints was chosen as the venue for the funeral Mass of Monsignor Walter J. Donovan, 96, who served the Archdiocese of Savannah-Atlanta for 68 years. Retired for many years, he no longer had a home parish and resided next door to our own retired Monsignor Kiernan at St. George Village in Roswell.

Scores of priests, uniformed students in blue and khaki from Msgr. Donovan High School in Athens, and friends and family filled the church on August 1st for the funeral. About 50 priests in matching vestments con-celebrated the Mass with Archbishop Wilton Gregory and Bishop Luis Zarama.

Our 4th degree Knights of the Fr. Charles Watters Assembly and several other Assemblies provided honor guard squads that stood watch overnight at the open casket in groups of four and provided the guard for the Mass the next morning. Our own Sir Knight Bob Mitchell was the Commander of the entire contingent.

These photos from the August 16th Georgia Bulletin show the grand ceremony. We can certainly be proud of our parish and our brother knights for giving this grand priest a fitting farewell.

Peace Officers Honor Msgr. Kiernan

August 15, Dunwoody Crier

Rev. Msgr. R. Donald Kiernan, PA, Pastor-Emeritus of All Saints Church, is being honored at the 2012 POAG (Peace Officer Association of Georgia) Convention in Savannah on August 19 for his work in law enforcement. Kiernan is the long-time chaplain of DeKalb County Police, and a 2011 retiree. The convention will be dedicated in his name.

Monsignor is shown being honored in March 2011 by the POAG at the state capital building. They love their chaplain.

Membership Committee Asks for Ongoing Help

Our council membership committee currently consists of two brothers, Frank Callan and Lou Hlad. These two men could certainly use some ongoing help and seek expansion of the committee to include extended recruiting, member retention, second, third, and fourth degree notices, prospect interviewing, and database updating. Now that we have passed 400 members, the job is growing steadily in scope.

If you can help by calling and emailing prospective members and current members to keep them abreast of interviews and upcoming ceremonies at our council and neighboring councils, please give us a call. Much of the work can be done from home. Volunteers should have computer skills in emailing mass messages with attachments and good phone skills for advising candidates of our council's interest in their membership. During certain times of the year, we call members who are behind in their dues as well.

Our present committee usually does a good job in recruiting, but the ongoing publication of events at other councils and progression of our members through the later degrees is a weakness of manpower. All members can help in the submission of new candidate names, but that is only the first step in a long chain of events that lead to degree progression and member retention. We also have many sick brothers that are reported to us, but their later health situations are not followed and reported. Some brothers require mentoring as well.

If you have some spare time and have good people skills, can follow up on developing scenarios, and are comfortable with computers, please think thoughtfully and prayerfully about a job on our membership committee. We need to increase the effectiveness of our outreach communications.

Mike Will is Knight of the Month

We finally got around to honoring Mike Will (left) who has been one of our most valuable and active members. For years he has championed the parish Habitat House builds, served as a council officer, ushered at Masses, lead teams to refurbish the Sister Sullivan Center, and worked on just about every project we could throw at him. Lou Hlad (right) presented him with his long-overdue honor last month.

Fathers for Good

Scripture Study and Discussion Group

Men with children of ALL ages are encouraged to attend

“Fathers for Good” is An Initiative for Men by the Knights of Columbus, International.

The All Saints Catholic Church Men with Young Children Scripture Study Group is a gathering of men with young children who get together to discuss the scripture in reference to their lives and in the light of their Catholic faith, and to share their faith and experiences through friendship, prayer, and fraternity. Members strive to be the spiritual leaders in their marriage and family and follow Jesus Christ by reinforcing Christian values in their home, and community, and working to ensure that their relationship with God, their wife, and their Children are in order. Men do not need to be a Knight to participate.

Strong Fathers, Strong Daughters: 10 secrets every father should know

“The author of this book, Meg Meeker, has the data and clinical experience to prove it. After more than twenty years of counseling girls, she knows that fathers, more than anyone else, set the course for their daughters’ lives. Directly challenging the feminist attack on traditional masculinity, Dr. Meeker demonstrates that the most important factor for girls growing up into confident, well-adjusted women is a strong father with conservative values. To have one, she shows, is the best protection against eating disorders, failure in school, STDs, unwed pregnancy, and drug or alcohol abuse - and the best predictor of academic achievement, successful marriage, and satisfying emotional life.”

Fathers are welcome to attend any or all of the sessions listed below.

“Knight to Knight” Corner

Our council insurance field agent, John Knight, has put together some great tips to consider monthly on the importance of proper insurance coverage.

Following is his September insurance topic to ponder. KofC insurance is sold only to brothers and their families at great rates.

September Insurance Tip --- Raising Awareness About Life Insurance

Since 2003, each September has been designated as Life Insurance Awareness Month. Like most awareness-raising campaigns, Life Insurance Awareness Month was created because there is an overwhelming lack of understanding of the product among the general public. Each year, the Life Insurance Market Research Association (LIMRA) puts out the results from a recent survey, and unfortunately, the numbers they report continue to be discouraging.

A recent survey found that 76 percent of people polled did not have a personal financial advisor. Sixty-eight percent of that same survey group said their opinion of the current economic conditions was somewhat unfavorable or very unfavorable.

In other words, a majority of those surveyed were uncomfortable with the economy and the uncertainty it brings, yet they did not seek professional assistance. Maybe they spoke with their friends and family. Maybe they hoped the instability would go away on its own. Maybe they did not know to whom to turn.

If you fall into this category, please remember that as a member of the Knights of Columbus, you have a full-time, professional agent you can call your own. My primary responsibility is the care and service of your family's life insurance, retirement, disability income and long-term care needs. I'll answer your questions because I want your decisions to be informed ones. I want to help.

Another LIMRA statistic said 43 percent of people did not buy life insurance because they worry about “making the wrong decision.” Talk with me, and, afterwards, you'll understand that the only wrong decision was not protecting your family's future sooner.

Council 11402 Suddenly Gets Butterflies

Almost 3,000 people attended this year's annual Butterfly Festival at the Dunwoody Nature Center and your council brothers were there. Festival organizers asked the council to provide volunteers to feed the throngs that they expected. Our reputation as reliable food purveyors at major events has proceeded us again. About 20 brothers and family members served throughout the morning or afternoon shift to grill 700 hot dogs.

The festivities included a butterfly tent, a bird of prey show, a concert by Jason's Music Party, crafts, garden tours by the DeKalb County Master Gardeners, geo-caching, and an organic butterfly release. The weather was beautiful and it appears that we have cemented another community partnership for the future.

Sponsoring Next Parish Eagle Scout

Eagle Scout candidate, Michael Wieland, is the next prospective parish Eagle in a string of young men now numbering somewhere in the mid-forties. He has been a member of our Troop 434 since 2005.

He proposes to renovate the parish campus outside altar area in the woods just adjacent to McGivney Hall to turn it into a prayer meadow. Michael will lead a team of scouts to install benches, clear a path, remove rotted railroad ties, repair altar stones, cement benches in place, install flood blocks to direct water, construct stands for saint statues, and add mulch to the area.

He expects the project will take three weekends and cost up to $600. Our pre-school and general parish population is expected to benefit from the additions.

Our officers voted a partial stipend of $250 to aid in his project as we do for all scouts.

Council Benevolence/Charity/Service

Council donated $250 to aid the Eagle Scout project of Boy Scout Mike Wieland (above). His project will be done on the All Saints grounds and we are proud to be a part of that effort.

Sir Knight Monsignor R. Donald Kiernan was honored by the Police Officers Association of Georgia (POAG) in Savannah. (See story). Their convention was named in his honor.

Monsignor Walter J. Donovan, 96, was honored in a funeral Mass at All Saints for his 68-year career as a diocesan priest. Many council and assembly members partook in the all-night watch at his casket and the funeral Mass.

Preparations for the fourth years of "Fathers for Good" seminars are well under way.

Council strongly supported the Dunwoody Nature Center Annual Butterfly Festival Event by providing food services.

Council sponsored the annual All Saints Altar Server outing.

Council lent their cooker to the parish Cub Scout Pack 434 for one of their events.

Council supported the Georgia Tech Council (page 10).

Council Meeting Attendance Blossoms

The August edition of the Knightline Newsletter has confirmed that All Saints 11402 has qualified officially for its 6th consecutive Double Star Award. Only eight of Georgia's 107 councils achieved a 2012 Double Star.

All Saints Teams With Georgia Tech Council

At the request of our District 7 Deputy, Brother Stan Wasowski, your All Saints 1st Degree Ceremonial Team travelled down to the Georgia Tech Catholic Center to hold an exemplification to boost the numbers of young brothers in the Order. Twelve new college students joined their council. Hiding behind the group at top left is our new candidate, Ralph O'Connor, who joined our council. If only we could have gotten all this youth into 11402!! We welcomed this one more mature brother into our more mature council on August 29th. We expect to keep mentoring Tech.
