Grand Knight's Report

Brothers:

September is an important month for our council. This coming Saturday and Sunday (Sept. 7-8) we are holding our first recruiting weekend – the brainchild of new Chancellor Bill Camden.

Bill needs your help signing up new members after each Mass. Fifteen minutes is all that is required. The work is light, and the show of fraternity and unity is as good as gold for the council.

If you are attending the business meeting this Tuesday evening (7:30 PM, Sept.3) please sign up to help after your Mass of choice. If you are not able to attend the meeting, not to worry, I will send out a separate email sign-up.

Should every male member of the parish over the age of 18 be a member of the council? I can give numerous reasons to join; but not a single one not to join. If you have a friend in the parish who is not a member, please consider asking him to join the largest Christian fraternal organization in the world.

As we stress at every first degree exemplification, becoming an active Knight "will make you a better father, husband and Catholic."

Congratulations to Brothers David Cahn, Joe Inglema and Father Anthony Eshun, who not only received the honors of the first degree within the past six weeks, but the second degree as well. Hopefully you've had the opportunity meet these Brothers, who have wasted no time becoming active.

I want to thank everyone who volunteered at the Dunwoody Nature Center's Butterfly Festival in August. The DNC's executive director, Alan Mothner, will join us at Tuesday night's meeting to personally thank the 20 Brothers who helped cook and serve hot dogs, hamburgers and Chick-fil-A sandwiches.

Major kudos to Brother E.J. Couvillion, who simulated a rooster while "hawking" sandwiches. Perhaps E.J. will give us a demonstration Tuesday night!

I also want to thank all of my fellow Brothers who attended Jim Mammoser's funeral Mass in August, and especially those who served in the Honor Guard. All told, I estimate 50-70 Brothers attended to say goodbye to one of our most active members. Even at the age of 84, Jim still worked as a cashier at the fish fry and oversaw our Seminarian program.

I received a hand-written note from Jim's daughter, Carol Reddaway, telling me how humbled her family was by the show of fraternity, and how much Jim enjoyed being a Knight. Jim, my dear friend, you are already dearly missed.

I leave you with a trivia question? In what book of the Bible will you find mention of the Ten Commandments?

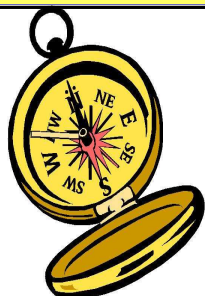

This is a little bit of a trick question. According to biblical scholars, God gave Moses the Ten Commandments sometime during the 14 months after the Jews left Egypt, which was in 1466 B.C.

God summoned Moses to the top of Mount Sinai and presented him with the tables of stone. The tables were later placed in the Ark of the Covenant, which was the subject of the popular film, Raiders of the Lost Ark.

Vivat Jesus,

ALL SAINTS COMPASS

Our Newest Council Members

On Tuesday, August 20th, we held a 1st degree ceremony in McGivney Hall and welcomed four new brothers. Robert Anderson is a supply chain supervisor, David Emery is retired and runs the Christ Renews His Parish (CHRP) ministry at All Saints, John Vander Wiele works for Paver Protection Pros, and Father Anthony Eshun is the visiting priest from Ghana, Africa who has been assisting at our parish for the last few months. He may be the Order's first Ghanaian.

We still lack photos for Bernie Sotola and Mark Zamora who transferred in July.

New Second Degree Promotions

On Wednesday, August 21, three brothers travelled to Atlanta Council 660 on Buford Highway to obtain their 2nd degree. Two were members for one month. Father Anthony Eshun had just become a new brother the night before and decided to pursue a 2nd degree immediately.

George J. Foster Weds for Sixty Years

Brother George J. Foster rejoined our council after an absence of three years. It was just in time, since we had a 60 year wedding certificate ready for he and wife Rita. Our council continues to be blessed with marriages in the impressive high numbers. Our new Lecturer Bruce Malinoff (left) did the honors.

Crnkovich is Knight-of-the-Month

Past Grand Knight Greg Crnkovich was last month's deserving winner of the Knight-of-the-Month Award for his conception and management of the July 4th float "Thomas the Train" that was the hit of the event. Lecturer Bruce Malinoff (right) presented the framed certificate with a picture of our amazing creation. Thanks to all who worked hard to make it a reality. The kids especially loved it.

Diaz Qualifies for Latest Shining Armor Award

Sir Knight Andy Diaz (left) is awarded his Shining Armor Award certificate and pin from Chancellor Sir Knight Bill Camden. We expect that Bill will be handing out many more of these awards, since Supreme dropped the stipulation that it had to be earned in the first year of membership only. Now the five criteria must be fulfilled in any single calendar year. Andy is a founding member of All Saints Council.

Parish Job Search Workshop Available

Charlie Schrauth asked me to see if any of our knights might be interested in joining our All Saints Job Network group. We are particularly seeking someone to give a 20 to 30 minute presentation on "resume writing". We would welcome anyone willing to lead a short session on some of the topics we cover. This includes: Goal Setting, Developing a Portfolio, Developing a Unique Selling Proposition, Networking, Market Planning, Interviewing, Using LinkedIn and the Telephone in your Job Search.

We give our session monthly from 9:00 to 12:00 on the second Saturday of each month in the Health Ministry Building. Currently, we're serving just a hand full of folks at each session...a couple of years ago we had 12 to 15 at each session. It is very satisfying to see the participants learn, grow and find the opportunities they are seeking. We follow up with one on one coaching as needed.

Bob, thanks for getting the word out for us. If anyone has interest ask them to contact Charlie at cschrauth@windstream.net or me at eileenweb@aol.com.

Vivat Jesus,
Brother Dave Webster

All Saints Earns 2012-2013 Star Council Award

The August 2013 edition of Knightline sent to all members has officially announced that the All Saints Council has earned a Star Council Award for the just-completed fraternal year.

Although we did not obtain the Double Star Award this time after a string of six-consecutive such prestigious and unprecedented endorsements, we are honored to place another star plaque on our back wall which is getting very busy with them.

The Star Award requires a 7% yearly increase in membership, while the Double Star Award requires a 14% yearly increase in membership. Anyone with any knowledge of mathematics knows that this type of progression is nearly impossible to sustain over a long period, becoming more and more demanding every year. Our membership has passed 420 requiring us to add 29 new members this fraternal year for a Star and 58 for a Double Star. Any membership losses add to the new additions needed.

For large councils, Supreme has set the minimum requirement of 35 new members needed for the Star Award and 70 for Double Star. We are rapidly approaching those new criteria. As council size goes, we are a very large council by Georgia standards. But by national standards, it is not uncommon for councils in very Catholic states to number from 800 to 1,000 or more members.

On the weekend of Sept 7/8, we will hold a recruitment drive at the doors of all Masses. Please help us attract new members into the Order.

Parish News Items

60 years for the Soboleskis

Walter and Anne Soboleski

Walter and Anne Soboleski, residents of Dunwoody since 1982, were married on Aug. 22, 1953 in Freeport, N.Y.

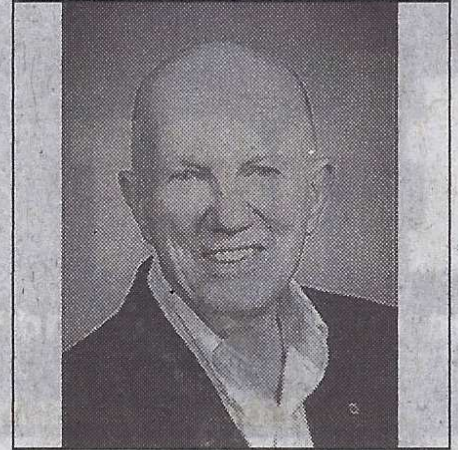

They met while Walter was a lifeguard at Jones Beach and Anne was a model in the garment district. Walter is a retired electrical engineer; Anne retired after a long, successful career as a real estate agent.

Parishioners at All Saints Catholic Church and parents to Patty Dawkins of Dunwoody (husband John), Jenny Vincent of Johns Creek (husband Rob), and Bob Soboleski of Sugar Hill (wife Deb), and grandparents to Kelly Dawkins of Dunwoody, Steven Sweum of Johns Creek, Jason and Brad Soboleski of Sugar Hill.

Above: The Soboleskis of All Saints Parish established a blessed milestone on 8/22/2013 with 60 years of marriage. Although Walter is not a Knight, they will be presented with our wedding certificate and invited to sit with our contingent of 50/60 year anniversary couples at this year's Archbishop's luncheon held on October 5th at St. Brigid Church. The council will send 10 couples and hope the Soboleskis join them to represent All Saints.

Right: We lost a wonderful brother knight on 8/3. Jim Mammoser was our council Vocations Chairman and maintained contact with our four seminarians. He was active in community associations and always was present at our meetings and special events. He and Wiley Maloof were instrumental in the parish obtaining the large wooden crucifix above the altar.

Council Supports Butterfly Fest

Bob, Greg, and Lou,

On behalf of the Dunwoody Nature Center, thank you for making our 20th annual Butterfly festival one of our best ever.

Despite the most unusual of weather conditions we had a great crowd and a wonderful festival – and all of the success of the event goes to you, our volunteers. Throughout the day the Knights cheerful, can-do attitude made sure that the festival ran smoothly and that the attendees came away with a positive experience. Happy volunteers make for happy visitors, and I hope that we did everything we can to make your volunteer experience a positive one.

We would welcome any feedback you have about the event, or your activities in particular. And we hope that you can come back to help again for an even better festival in 2014.

Thanks again,
Alan and Melanie

Bereavement Committee Help Asked

At the July Council meeting, Deacon Ray Egan asked if some of the members could help him as new members of the Bereavement Committee to administer to our sick and deceased members. For some years, he has been the brother who brought fruit baskets to members who had been released from hospitals or had lengthy stays in hospitals.

He also contacts the parish office to schedule a Mass for a deceased relative of a member or to schedule five Masses for a deceased brother. He could use some well-deserved help.

Contact dekeray@aol.com or 770-394-5643.

Council Benevolence/Charity/Service

Council bought new officer jewels and donated its old ones to the Georgia Tech Council that had none. Worth about $150.

Council passed a resolution to donate $250 toward a cancer retreat event in Santa Rosa, FL. Brother Paul Weidle and his daughter Diane are participating.

Council donated $2,000 to the I-Care organization which drives elderly patients to and from medical appointments free of charge. John Buchholz requested.

Council voted $1,000 to the People Making Progress group. We have this organization budgeted yearly for this amount. Treasurer Mario Commiato requested the donation.

Council discussed and are studying a donation to the new Christo Rey Jesuit Catholic School to be located in Midtown Atlanta on West Peachtree St. Our member, Brother Deacon Bill Garrett, is the new principal and has asked our help.

Council donated $500 to missionary Gray Plunkett's fund. We will sponsor 4 seminarians this year instead of 3.

Council donated $1000 to St. Peter and Paul Church per request of our member, pastor Fr. Bryan Small.

Brother Deacon Melvin's CharityMobi.org Web Site

Our Council Brother, Deacon Ken Melvin, and wife Linda host a charity web site called CharityMobi.org dedicated to aiding child victims of Hurricane Sandy, as well as poverty-stricken children in Grenada and Tanzania. He is at kmelvin@comcast.net and is assigned to Corpus Christi Parish in Stone Mountain, GA.

The focus of the effort is to raise charitable funds via the internet to aid children affected by Hurricane Sandy in New Jersey, as well as to provide medical MobiEHR health cards for use in the poverty areas of the island of Grenada and the Republic of Tanzania in Southeast Africa. The cards contain digital health records of program children.

Working with the World Health Organization and the National Medical Research Institute of Tanzania, the digital cards monitor the progress of children's medications for Malaria, TB, and HIV. When a child takes a pill with a Proteus I-Med monitoring device inside the pill, a signal is sent to a mobile telephone saying that the child has taken the pill. CharityMobi seeks donors/sponsors to pay for the program for relief aid, mobile devices, and the i-Proteus ingestible monitoring system.

On the island of Grenada, West Indies, the process is very similar with CharityMobi working with the Health Ministry of Grenada and Catholic orphanages. CharityMobi is looking for corporate sponsors to provide support to expand the program. The web site allows credit card donations to separate funds for Hurricane Sandy, Grenada, or Tanzania.

If this entire charity story were not wild enough, the web site is holding a raffle with a grand prize of a Mercedes AMG sports car valued at $225,000 plus three other perks. Only 1,000 tickets will be sold for $995 each. The winner gets:

- $225,000 certificate credited to purchase of a Custom AMG auto (includes ticket to AMG Driving School)
- $82,500 certificate to pay all Federal Gambling Taxes
- $15,000 certificate towards payment of TAVT, sales tax, title and registration
- $10,000 certificate to cover a 4-day trip to Germany to watch the auto being built and take delivery. Includes airfare, factory tour, road book, AMG hosted meals, VIP package, winner's evening event, and hotel accommodations in a 4-star hotel near the factory in Affalterbach Germany by Nurburgring.

It should be noted that this charitable initiative was not a product of our council Charity Review Committee.

September Tip --- “Raising Awareness about Life Insurance”

Each September since 2003 has been designated as Life Insurance Awareness Month. Like most awareness-raising campaigns, Life Insurance Awareness Month was created because there is an overwhelming lack of understanding of the product among the general public. Each year, the Life Insurance Market Research Association (LIMRA) puts out the results from a recent survey, and unfortunately, the numbers they report continue to be discouraging.

A recent survey found that more than 75 percent of people polled did not have a personal financial advisor. Sixty-eight percent of that same survey group said their opinion of the current economic conditions was somewhat unfavorable or very unfavorable.

In other words, a majority of those surveyed were uncomfortable with the economy and the uncertainty it brings, yet they did not seek professional assistance. Maybe they spoke with their friends and family. Maybe they hoped the instability would go away on its own. Maybe they did not know to whom to turn.

If you fall into this category, please remember that as a member of the Knights of Columbus, you have a full-time, professional agent you can call your own. My primary responsibility is the care and service of your family’s life insurance, retirement and long-term care needs. I’ll answer your questions because I want your decisions to be informed ones. I want to help.

Another LIMRA statistic said 43 percent of people did not buy life insurance because they worry about “making the wrong decision.” Talk with me as your agent, and, afterwards, you’ll understand that the only wrong decision was not purchasing sooner to protect your family’s future.

If you had any doubt as to the influence of the All Saints Council on parish organization, you need only look at this list. Sir Knight Bryan Kler is Parish Council President, Mary Trantow (wife of Sir Knight Dean Trantow) is vice-president, Delina Malinoff (wife of Brother Bruce Malinoff) is Secretary. Other positions feature Sir Knight Pat Casey Sr., Sir Knight John Francis, Brother Matthew Planer, Brother Greg Pyne, Sir Knight Ernie Spencer, and Sir Knight Stan Wasowski. Other parish ministries such as the ushers and ecumenical ministers are noticeably dominated by knights and their wives.
